Coalition Is Planned In South Africa

Premier Hertzog and Gen. Smuts Agree on Union of Parties and Election in July

Cabinet Seats To Be Divided

(Canadian Press)
Capetown, S.A., Feb. 24.—South Africa has followed Great Britain and New Zealand in the formation of a national coalition cabinet.
An agreement was signed to-day for an equal distribution of cabinet seats by the Nationalist Party head, Premier J. B. M. Hertzog, and the leader of the South African Party, Gen. Jan Christian Smuts.
It is understood Mr. Hertzog will retain the premiership, and that General Smuts will rank immediately below the Prime Minister.
The agreement was signed by Premier Hertzog and his Finance Minister, Hon. R. C. Havenga, and General Smuts and his chief lieutenant, Patrick Duncan, prominent Transvaal leader.
DIVISION OF PORTFOLIOS
The agreement grants Mr. Hertzog's Nationalists six cabinet seats, including one for Labor, while the Smuts party also will get six seats, including one without portfolio.
The expectation is the House of Assembly will be dissolved next week in preparation for a general election in July.
Several vital points of policies are said to have been agreed on. These include complete maintenance of South Africa's membership in the British Commonwealth of Nations and settlement of the native question, specifically safeguarding the Cape's native franchise.
The successful arrival at terms concluded nearly two weeks' discussion by the party leaders.
The joint statement issued by Premier Hertzog and General Smuts makes clear the two parties will retain separate identities.

CALIFORNIA JUDGE LISTED FOR TRIAL

Washington, Feb. 24.—The United States House of Representatives this afternoon voted impeachment of Federal Judge Harold Louderback of California.

STRINGS TIED TO SECESSION

Reeve Crouch Would Limit Exodus From Saanich to Northern Ward

Urban Residents Have No Desire to Strangle Farmers, Council Told

Reeve Crouch of Saanich was yesterday evening formally invited to lead a deputation to the provincial government in support of secession of the rural wards. The invitation was tendered by Councilor L. E. Hagan of Ward Six, at the session of the municipal council. Reeve Crouch protested that he had never offered to plead for secession of all the northern rural area. His services would be limited to aiding Ward Six, the most northerly area, to form a municipality. He would be no party to an application for reversion of the area to an unorganized status similar to North Saanich.

Allen and Mitchell Are Golf Finalists

Will Decide Midwinter Handicap Title at Victoria Golf Club To-morrow

Former Defeats Ollie Corbett, Medalist; Mitchell Beats N. Thornton-Fell

H. A. Allen, George Vale, and N. S. Mitchell, Uplands, will meet in the thirty-six-hole final to-morrow at the Victoria Golf Club, for the men's handicap championship of the Empire midwinter golf tournament. In the semi-finals this morning Allen defeated Ollie Corbett, a clubmate and winner of the medal honors on Monday, 5 and 4, while Mitchell was returned victor over N. Thornton-Fell, 1 up.
Allen is a sixteen-handicap player, and Mitchell receives eleven strokes. In his match with Corbett, the player who surprised by heading the qualifying field the opening day, Allen secured an early lead and never relinquished it. Mitchell and Thornton-Fell engaged in a match that was close all the way.

Gets Injunction, But Too Late

Power Company With Court Order Outwitted By Fast-moving Merritt Councilors

A move to head off the City of Merritt, B.C., from making a new light and power contract yesterday evening was launched here by E. C. Lucas, of Vancouver, counsel for the Southern Interior Light and Power Company, which had held the light and power contract for Merritt and claimed the city had wrongfully cancelled it.
Chief Justice Morrison of the Supreme Court in Vancouver on Thursday refused the company's application for an injunction to prevent the city from entering into a new contract with the Middleboro Collieries Ltd., claiming there had been no jurisdiction to cancel the original contract.

BOMBERS BUSY ON CUBA'S HOLIDAY

Series of Explosions on Independence Day Climaxed By Blowing Up of Railway Bridge

Associated Press
Havana, Feb. 24.—A series of bombings early this morning on the thirty-eighth anniversary of Cuba's Independence was climaxed shortly before noon when a railroad bridge in Camaguey province was blown up with dynamite.
The capital was waiting anxiously to learn whether a revolutionary movement rumored for to-day was materializing.
It was recalled Mexico City dispatches predicted bombings in Havana simultaneously with the concentration movement of rebels from the mainland toward the island.
An explosion of a large bomb in the Vedado suburb at 12:50 a.m. caused a hunt by police. Two large bombs exploded shortly after 2 a.m. These five small bombs exploded at the Centro Asturiano at 1 a.m. causing several hundred dancers to flee in confusion and desert the ballroom.

Unrest was prevailing throughout the island as the thirty-eighth Cuban Independence Day began.
Communications were interrupted eastward from the capital.
After the ballroom bombing, police arrested Bartolome Mas, declaring they had found liquid fire bombs in his coat pocket.
Bombs were found shortly after midnight at the National Casino.
A dispatch from Santiago reported the burning of the Jacone sugar mill near Manzanillo. All buildings were destroyed. The cause of the fire was unknown.

RUGBY POSTPONED
Dublin, Feb. 24 (Canadian Press).—The international rugby game scheduled for here to-morrow between Ireland and Scotland has been postponed indefinitely.

C.P.R. Vice-president Attending Natural Resources and Colonization Conferences

Company Appreciative of Interest Taken in Winter Golf Tournament

Business conferences are claiming the attention of D'Alton C. Coleman, vice-president, Canadian Pacific Railway western times, on his present visit to Victoria.
Immediately after his arrival from Winnipeg yesterday afternoon, Mr. Coleman attended a meeting of the C.P.R. department of natural resources at the Empress Hotel.

D. C. COLEMAN

With Victoria Jubilee, Vancouver General and New Westminster Royal Columbian Not Voting, Tally Is 77 to 20 in Favor of Government-controlled Lotteries

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Feb. 24.—British Columbia Hospitals Association members voted seventy-seven to twenty in favor of government-controlled sweepstakes for the benefit of hospitals, according to a report to the board of directors of the Vancouver Hospital.

The result of the vote was announced in a circular letter from the association, which also stated that in addition to the Vancouver General Hospital, the boards of the Royal Jubilee Hospital, Victoria, and the Royal Columbian Hospital, New Westminster, had not voted on the issue.

At the annual meeting of the association in Vancouver last fall the vote was authorized.
CHURCH PROTEST
The Vancouver Presbytery of United Church of Canada protested to the board its action in accepting a share of the proceeds of a recent sweepstakes conducted for the benefit of hospitals in this province.

A resolution moved by J. H. McVety that the Presbytery be thanked for its co-operation in interests of health insurance, which was favored by the board, carried unanimously.

WAR MINISTER REPORTS TO KING

London, Feb. 24.—Lord Hallam, Secretary of State for War, returned to the King at Buckingham Palace to-day.
There was no announcement as to whether his visit had any connection with the situation in the Far East, but one of the duties of the Minister of War is to keep the King informed on military developments.

SALARY CUT DEBATED
Ottawa, Feb. 24 (Canadian Press).—The Commons to-day renewed consideration of the government resolution to extend for another year the general ten per cent salary reduction for civil servants, members and senators.

CANADIAN DOLLAR LOSES ON EXCHANGE

New York, Feb. 24.—After resisting for two days, the Canadian dollar here to-day fell in line with sterling and closed at 87 1/2 cents, a decline of 5-16 cent from Thursday. The United States premium on Canadian funds improved to 26.63 per cent.
Sterling finished at $3.40 13-16 in United States funds, a decline of 5-16 cent from the previous close.
Exchange rates at noon to-day as quoted by the Canadian Press were:
Pound sterling, Montreal, $4.19 1/2.
U.S. dollar, Montreal, $1.30 1/2.

RECOVERS AFTER MIAMI SHOOTING

Wounded when Giuseppe Zangara attempted to kill President-elect Roosevelt by shooting, Mrs. Joseph H. Gill of Miami, above, wife of the president of the Florida Power and Light Company, is now reported out of danger.

Wounded Mayor of Chicago Near Death

Has Little Chance to Recover, Says One of His Physicians in Miami

Associated Press
Miami, Fla., Feb. 24.—His strength drained by complications which followed the bullet wound he received from the revolver of Giuseppe Zangara, would-be assassin, Mayor Anton J. Cermak of Chicago to-day was given little chance to survive.
Dr. Frank Jirka, son-in-law of Mayor Cermak, said he considered the patient had but a slim chance.
Dr. Frederick Tice, Chicago heart specialist, however, said:
"Human life is too complicated to place it on a valuation of chances on the one side, against chances on the other. There are too many factors to be considered."

VISITED BY FAMILY
Dr. Jirka's statement was made after members of the mayor's family had visited him at the hospital.
The family left the room in tears after a brief stay.
Dr. Tice said preparations had been started to administer another intravenous injection of glucose, a food substance being pumped into the veins in an attempt to aid vitality.
HONOR FOR MASSEY
Montreal, Feb. 24.—Hon. Vincent Massey, former Canadian Minister to the United States, will be given an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by McGill University at a convocation May 25.

New York, Feb. 24.—Origin of $100,000 in counterfeit $100 notes, many of which were successfully passed last month in Chicago, has been traced by federal agents to Soviet Russia, it was reported to-day.

B.C. DEFICIT FIVE MILLION

Charging Unemployment to Current Revenue, Total Is $7,051,560

Public Accounts For Year Ending March, 1932, Filed in House To-day

A summary of the public accounts filed in the Legislature to-day by Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1932, reported an ordinary deficit of approximately $5,000,000.

For the fiscal year ordinary current expenditures total $23,373,325, and ordinary current revenue $21,983,382, a deficit on current account of $1,390,742.
Capital account expenditures, which include such matters as sinking funds, redemption of debentures, interest on P.E. bonds, and payment on British Columbia House mortgage, and special warrants for unemployment relief brought the total expenditure for the year up to $29,214,317—all of which is charged in Mr. Jones's accounts to current revenue.

Current and capital revenue total $22,162,657.
In the total expenditures included is a sum of $1,830,592 for unemployment relief purposes. The summary stated that had it been possible under existing legislation during the last fiscal year to do so this amount would have been capitalized as in being done this year by every province for unemployment purposes. If such an arrangement had been brought into effect before April 1 last, the government's total deficit would have been $5,231,078.

New Ambassador To Go To Moscow

Nanking, Feb. 24.—Dr. W. W. Yen, China's delegate to the League of Nations, will leave for Moscow as soon as the present session of the League Assembly is over, the Foreign Office announced to-day.

JOB CAMPAIGN NEARLY READY

Preparations For the Emergency Employment Drive Complete

Preliminary organization for the Greater Victoria Emergency Employment Campaign was almost completed at noon to-day, but there is still room for all volunteers willing to assist in securing work pledges. Thirty members of the Kiwanis Club this morning enrolled as workers.
The campaign will open on Tuesday, after an organization meeting of workers on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium. The effort will continue for two weeks.
This evening at 7:15 o'clock Fred M. McGregor will give a brief address over CFCF in support of the campaign. Cyril C. Warren will render piano selections.
All the homes of Greater Victoria have now been supplied with a folder explaining the scope of the Emergency Employment Plan, the distribution having been carried out through the Postal Department.
Residents in the rural areas of Saanich Peninsula and from Jordan River to Cobble Hill on Monday will receive publicity material and pledge forms.

BOWSER FORCES LAUNCH DRIVE

News of $7,000,000 Deficit of Tolmie Government To-day Stirs Definite Action

Public Meeting Called Here For Next Thursday to Inaugurate B.C.-wide Move

Guns may boom, bands play and soldiers parade to focus attention on the Parliament Buildings, but politicians to-day expressed the opinion it was daily more certain that B.C.'s political future in a large measure was being decided in the quiet stucco home among the rocks and trees at the top of Rockland Avenue.

There forces from all parts of B.C. seeking to bring order out of impending political chaos, are focusing around the ability, experience, courage and personality of ex-Premier W. J. Bowser, in semi-retirement.
When Finance Minister Jones to-day made public his accounts for the year, showing a deficit of between $7,000,000 and $8,000,000, speculation was stimulated to a high point in political circles as to what was going to happen. Some of the members of the Conservative caucus indicated that the government might not last through the session, although they did not expect any.

AIR DIFFERENCES ON RAIL WAGES

Canadian Press
Montreal, Feb. 24.—Canada's two principal railways were informed to-day that 30,000 employees in the running trades had voted against the substitution of a 20 per cent reduction in pay for the present 10 per cent cut. The result of the Dominion referendum among the men was made known to four representatives of the companies at a conference with general chairmen of the unions.

LEAGUE RULING IS CANADA'S

Riddell Tells Assembly Dominion Approves Report Against Japanese in Manchuria

Canadians Are For Scrupulous Respect For International Covenant

Canadian Press
Geneva, Feb. 24.—"It is unnecessary to emphasize the gravity of the decision the members of the League must make to-day," declared Dr. W. A. Riddell, Canada's permanent advisory delegate to the League of Nations, when he supported on behalf of the Dominion the report of the League committee of nineteen: Adoption of the report to-day was immediately followed by the dramatic walking out of Japanese delegates, incensed at the report's condemnation of Japan's policy in Manchuria.
"The faith of the world in the possibility of peaceful settlement is shaken," declared Dr. Riddell, who, although a member of the Assembly was not on the special committee which drew up the report. "If this faith is destroyed," he added, "the structure of security slowly built up on the foundations of scrupulous respect for international covenants will be undermined. For these reasons we must vote adoption of the committee's report."

Dr. Riddell stressed Canada had painstakingly followed a policy which he considered most helpful in the crisis. The Canadian government recognized that with exhaustion of efforts at conciliation, the League committee of nineteen was bound to draw up the report it had done, under paragraph four of the League Covenant.

But While Matsuoka and Colleagues Walk Out of Assembly Hall, Japan For Time Being Is Not Formally Withdrawing From League

Willing to Aid In Other Directions

Of All Powers With Delegates in Geneva, Only Siam Abstains From Voting

Canadian Press and Associated Press
Geneva, Feb. 24.—The Japanese delegation walked out of the Assembly of the League of Nations to-day after adoption of the report condemning Japan's policy in Manchuria and urging continuation of non-recognition of the Japanese-sponsored state of Manchukuo.
The delegation announced it could no longer co-operate with the League on the Japanese-Chinese question.
Siam alone abstained from voting. Forty-two voted "yes."
The absentees were Cuba, Salvador, Nicaragua, Peru, Bolivia, Paraguay and Chile.
Dr. Walter A. Riddell, for Canada, and Dr. David Zaslavsky, for Lithuania, non-members of the League's committee of nineteen, announced approval of the report.
OTHER CO-OPERATION
Yosuke Matsuoka, head of the Japanese delegation, told the Assembly, however, that Japan would co-operate with the league as far as circumstances permitted.
STILL MEMBER
While the situation was left somewhat confused, it was clear that for the present Japan has not withdrawn from the League. Neither did M. Matsuoka assert Japan would withdraw from the League.

Report Manchukuo Force Sweeping Southwest in Direction of Jehol City; Chinese Say 30,000 Japanese Besieging Chaoyang

Canadian Press and Associated Press
Tungliang, Manchuria, Feb. 24.—The Manchukuo forces of Gen. Chang Hsi-peng entered Kailu, northeastern gate to Jehol province, to-day after dispersing guerrillas en route.
They swept through the town and marched on toward the southwest in the general direction of Jehol city.
At noon the Japanese column, commanded by Major-Gen. Kennosuke Mogi, entered Kailu.
This movement, considered in relation with operations in the vicinity of Chaoyang, indicates the campaign is taking shape.

Japanese Say Jehol Key City Is Captured

The field of operations is roughly triangular, with Jehol city the objective of advances from Kailu and Chaoyang. Kailu is 550 miles northeast of the capital and 150 miles almost due north of Chaoyang, and Chaoyang is about 125 miles from Jehol city.

Half way between Kailu and Jehol city is the town of China-Peng. Half way between Chaoyang and Jehol is the town of Lingyuan. Those two towns constitute vital passes into the central province, and if the Chinese resistance is to be effective they must hold both passes at all costs.

Lingyuan especially is heavily defended and neutral observers believe that if the Chinese show determination they can hold up the advance there for several weeks.

CHAOS IN BATTLE
Peiping, Feb. 24.—Chaoyang, second largest city of Jehol province, was reported to-day besieged by a Japanese army of 30,000 troops.
Infantry, artillery, tanks and bombing planes were reported participating in the attack in a message to North China military headquarters here from Gen. Tang Uy-lin, governor of Jehol.

WAY OUT IS TO FIGHT
Nanking, China, Feb. 24.—China's capital seemed dazed to-day by the report it had done, under paragraph four of the League Covenant.

Lost Cattle Return To Ranch After Big Hunt

Quenest, B.C., Feb. 24.—Country-wide search for a lost band of 125 head of cattle was ended when the missing herd turned up at the ranch of their owner, M. A. Heilig, at the headwaters of the Nazko River, 100 miles west of here.

It was at first thought an organized band of cattle rustlers was operating in the Chilcotin-Nazko range country, but investigation by Sgt. P. W. Geilagher of the provincial police, Williams Lake, covering a period of months, failed to disclose evidence of any irregular shipments having been made.

J. M. G. (Joe) Smith of Williams Lake, former cattle rancher at Crow's Bar and Alexis Creek, and for a time manager of the Chilco Ranch, Chilcotin, was sworn in as special investigating constable. Between July and the middle of January he covered hundreds of miles with saddle and pack horse. Ostensibly seeking hay meadows, Joe rode every open trail, and many that were not clear trails, between Bridge River in the south and Ootsa Lake in the Bulkley Valley.

Duke Martin, operating one of the larger Chilcotin ranches, setting on behalf of the Stockmen's Association and in co-operation with the police, also took an active part in the investigation, traveling many miles on horseback and by automobile.

While the findings of the investigation have not been fully revealed, sufficient has been disclosed to convince cattle owners that the missing herd had not been at any time far from the Nazko range.

Mr. Lucas came to Victoria to ask leave to appeal against this injunction at the conclusion of the opening ceremonies at the Legislature, which the justices attended. The injunction was granted, reversing the refusal of Chief Justice Morrison and the order signed by Mr. Justice McPhillips just before the dinner hour. This would have been effective in heading off the new contract as Merritt was not due to hold its meeting until 8 o'clock in the evening.

However, Merritt councillors moved fast and beat the Court of Appeal to the punch. The injunction was signed here, the long distance, telephone brought the news that Merritt had already had its meeting and had completed the new contract as planned. Mr. Lucas returned home at midnight with his empty injunction.

Councillor Hagan brought the matter up in formal manner, remarking: "At the opening of the Court of Revision of the Assessment Roll, on February 8, Reeve Crouch offered to advocate the cause of secession of the rural northern district of Saanich. I was surprised and pleased. I now move this council formally asks the revenue to implement his generous offer."

When Reeve Crouch said there was no chance of Ward Six being allowed to set up a separate municipality, Councillor Hagan said: "Why draw the line at Ward Six? Besides, we do not want to be a municipality, we want secession."

"That proposal, to make a municipality of Ward Six, is the only one I am willing to advocate. I am not agreeable to thrusting more charges on the provincial government," replied Reeve Crouch.

STANGLED NONE

Councillor Eden advised Councillor Hagan to get an organization of farmers to undertake the work of preliminary organization of a movement for secession. "You do that successfully and you will be surprised how quickly I will support it. I do not want to see Saanich-bust-up but I will not be a party to strangling any one. If the inner wards are strangled the farmers I do not want to be a party to it," he said.

Councillor H. D. Coton said: "Ward Five will have something to say about secession," and Councillor Hoar commented: "You will want to go with the Ward Six farmers."

Councillor Hagan protested: "The revenue and his offer and something should be done about it by this council."

APPLICATION FIRST

Councillor W. F. Somers of Ward Three said: "This is no matter for a move in the first instance to come from the council. You do that successfully and you will be surprised how quickly I will support it. I do not want to see Saanich-bust-up but I will not be a party to strangling any one. If the inner wards are strangled the farmers I do not want to be a party to it," he said.

Councillor Hagan reiterated that northern farmers did not desire to establish another municipality. He added that if that was the only alternative they would prefer it to continuing the present system.

Several councillors then eagerly entered the debate at the same time, but the matter was suddenly dropped when Councillor W. R. Woods of Ward Four interjected: "Now, now, let's be harmonious, for the love of Pete."

Forty-two Nations Vote Against Japan

In his final remarks to the Assembly he said: "The Japanese Government now finds itself compelled to conclude Japan and other members of the League entertain different views on the manner in which peace in the Far East is to be achieved, and the Japanese Government is obliged to feel it has now reached the limit of its endeavors to co-operate with the League. It is now necessary to regard Sino-Japanese differences."

"The Japanese Government, however, will make the utmost efforts for establishment of peace in the Far East and for maintenance and strengthening of cordial relations with other powers."

ACCEPTED BY CHINA

Shortly after the opening of the League's most critical Assembly meeting, W. W. Yen accepted the report in behalf of China. He called it "a terrible but just indictment of Japanese militarism."

"The report is a verdict of guilty against the misguided leaders of Japan who have vainly inflicted so much harm on my country," Dr. Yen declared to a packed and excited Assembly chamber.

The report on Manchuria was formally transmitted by the secretary to Hugh Wilson, United States Minister to Switzerland, and to the representative of Soviet Russia. Both countries have been asked to co-operate with the League in settlement of the Manchurian dispute.

COMMITTEE NAMED

Geneva, Feb. 24.—Meeting without the Japanese delegation this afternoon, the Assembly of the League of Nations appointed an advisory committee of twenty-one members—including Canada—to serve as an executive group in further dealing with the Japanese-Chinese dispute.

The advisory committee will report and make proposals to the Assembly whenever it thinks fit.

The Assembly meanwhile remains technically in session, subject to reconvening by the president.

The Australian Dairy Board unwilling to reduce exports to Britain

Associated Press
Melbourne, Australia, Feb. 24.—The Australian Dairy Board resolved to-day to resist export restrictions to the United Kingdom on the ground it would cause chaos to the industry.

The board's statement follows: "A suggestion from Wellington, N.Z., on Tuesday that New Zealand would only agree to restrict butter exports to the United Kingdom providing Australia would do the same."

The Australian board attributed the increased production of last year to an exceptional season and suggested the British Government should be asked to consider the advisability of restricting foreign imports.

"The whole question of butter exports to Great Britain has arisen from the fact the United Kingdom might put an import restriction on dairy products to protect her own dairy industry."

New Zealand producers declared they could not reduce their exports, but the government promised it would attempt to adhere to the United Kingdom's request for a lessening of exports.

FAIL TO FIND ABDUCTORS

Colorado Police Busy, But on Twelfth Day C. Boettcher Still Held

(Associated Press)
Denver, Feb. 24.—A new investigation, this time by a county grand jury, was under way as the twelfth day passed since the abduction for $50,000 ransom of Charles Boettcher, one, if the inner wards are strangled the farmers I do not want to be a party to it," he said.

The grand jury investigation was ordered by District Attorney Earl Wetzel after a conference with Claude K. Boettcher, millionaire father of the missing young man, and other efforts yesterday, during which more clues in the case were investigated and labeled worthless and the elder Boettcher had issued an ultimatum to the criminals.

He warned the abductors that if the $100,000 ransom was not paid by midnight next Saturday, all ransom offers would be withdrawn and he would proceed with "such action as may then seem advisable."

D. C. COLEMAN IS BUSY MAN HERE

In the course of his trip he is inspecting the lines over which he has jurisdiction. It is the first time since his first trip of the year to the Coast.

He said the company appreciated the interest of the Japanese in the C.P.R. midwinter golf tournament in Victoria. The company, he explained, has extensively advertised the tournament with a view to popularizing the evergreen playground of the Pacific Coast.

He commented upon the spring-like weather here and compared it with the winter conditions which have been experienced on the prairies.

While here to-day Mr. Coleman met a number of Winnipeg people who are here for the tournament.

Mr. Coleman is expected to participate in an unofficial capacity in tomorrow's events, which will mark the beginning of the winter season.

He does not play golf, but is always ready to concede its advantages as a healthful pastime. Fishing is more in his line.

During his stay here Mr. Coleman will meet government leaders and prominent businessmen of the city. He will also inspect the operations of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, of which he is president. The vice-president's party will remain here over the week-end.

H. P. Matthews, general manager, Canadian Pacific western hotels, Winnipeg, is also in the city to-day.

TOTAL $7,051,560

The accounts show that the government's revenue during the fiscal year fell below estimates by $5,926,089, but at the same time Mr. Jones was able to effect drastic savings in almost all departments of the government to a total of $1,342,000 after providing for additional expenditures under supplementary estimates, making a total saving below estimates of $1,068,094. Even charging unemployment costs to current revenue Mr. Jones's total deficit is shown at $7,051,560.

It was claimed the government's position in the present fiscal year, due to drastic economies in every direction, is vastly improved over that of the last fiscal year. It was forecast that when the controller-general's report for nine months of the current fiscal year is filed in the House shortly, it will show only a small deficit on current account.

TALK OF WHEAT AT CONFERENCE

Hyde Park, N.Y., Feb. 24.—President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt talked about wheat with Hon. W. D. Herridge at his conference last Tuesday, he disclosed to-day.

He said nothing definite had been agreed about a wheat conference and recalled the subject of wheat was part of the agenda of the World Economic Conference.

He declined to say whether he would ask the special session of Congress to consider the St. Lawrence treaty now awaiting ratification. Senator Thomas A. Walsh, after a conference with Mr. Roosevelt, had predicted it would be taken up.

The President-elect's statement concerning wheat bore out his formal announcement after the Herridge conference that "many subjects of mutual interest to Canada and the United States" had been discussed, and also the Canadian minister's remark that it had been "general."

It had previously been suggested speculatively the conversation had dealt with the St. Lawrence, possible reciprocal trade arrangements with Canada and exchange. It now appears the economic position of both countries may have been more widely canvassed than had been supposed.

URGES WIDER ECONOMY PLAN

Hon. G. N. Gordon Suggests Closing of Government House, Ottawa

Canadian Press
Toronto, Feb. 24.—Hon. George N. Gordon, K.C., former Liberal Minister of Education, told the Toronto Women's Liberal Association yesterday he thought "Lord Bessborough would feel at home in England."

"My suggestion," he said, "is that they let Government House rest a while."

Mr. Gordon also criticized expenditures on the recent formal opening of the Ontario Legislature and suggested the Canadian High Commissioner's office in London be closed.

"There," he continued, "is a million spent to see if Hector Charlesworth can take the static out of the radio. I think we might listen to the static and save a million in these times of hard and unemployment."

He was speaking of the recently appointed Canadian Radio Commission, headed by Mr. Charlesworth.

Mr. Gordon, who is a barrister of Peterboro, Ont., was Minister of Immigration for a short time prior to the general election of 1929. For years he was an alderman of Peterboro and for four years was city solicitor. From February, 1921, till the general election of 1929, he was member of the Commons for West Peterboro. He was Deputy Speaker of the House in 1922.

BOWSER FORCES LAUNCH DRIVE

break until after the members had served the required number of days to entitle them to draw their full seasonal indemnity.

MEETINGS CALLED

While this news was coming out at the Parliament Buildings, old-line Conservatives who have been organizing to retrieve the situation with the aid of Mr. Bowser, announced they would hold the first public meeting of their campaign here next Thursday evening, March 2, in the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting here, it was announced, is to be followed in the next week by a public demonstration in Vancouver against the forces in control of the present government.

These two meetings, it was explained, are to inaugurate the move to place candidates in every part of the province to provide leadership for the public opinion, which, it is claimed, is increasingly hostile towards the government.

At the preliminary organization meeting here early this week it was announced that the candidates to go before the voters under the Bowser banner will be drawn in equal numbers from the old Conservative and Liberal parties. For one-member constituencies an arrangement has been made to have Conservatives alternate with Liberals. The four names mentioned in the meeting as probable representatives in Victoria were those of Aldermen Dr. J. D. Hunter, Ex-Mayor Herbert Ashcomb, R. W. Mayhew and George McGregor. In Vancouver it was stated the forces would be led by those closely to Ex-President Harold Brown of the Board of Trade, who has been leading the drive for the elimination of extravagant politics and financing in British Columbia government affairs.

CHINESE APPEAL

The Central Daily News in its appeal to the Chinese to fight said: "Further reasoning is futile. In the eyes of the Japanese military leaders, the Chinese have ceased to be one of the great races and China is no longer a nation. Now is not a time to solicit opinions in Washington, Geneva and Moscow. We should not hope for outside assistance or luck."

Tokio, Feb. 24.—While they were apprehensive lest operations in Jehol provinces precipitate disturbances in North China, endangering Japanese lives, Japanese military authorities have decided to-day their operations at Peiping and Tientsin had been warned to act strictly on the defensive and to avoid any aggravation of the situation. Likewise they appeared confident the operations in Jehol would be completed swiftly and easily.

FACTS ABOUT THE JEHOI CAMPAIGN

Japanese strength—60,000 troops.
Chinese strength—150,000 troops.
Japanese high command:
Gen. Nobuyuki Mutu, commander-in-chief, and Lieut.-Gen. Kuniaki Koto, chief of staff, Headquarters, Changchun, Manchuria.
Chinese command:
Marshal Chang Hsiao-liang (regular army; headquarters, Peiping, Gen. Tan Yu-lin (Jehol state army); headquarters, Jehol city (or Chongqing-fu). Various chiefs of volunteers.
Northern Japanese offensive:
Present leader—Lieut.-Gen. Masayemon Sakamoto and Gen. Chang Hsiao-peng (Manchurian); base, Tangliao, Manchuria.
To-day's objective, Kailu, forty miles southwest of Tungliang.
Ultimate objective—Unannounced; apparently Jehol city, 240 miles southwest of Kailu.
Opposition—Mainly Chinese volunteers.
Southern Japanese offensive:
Present leader—Lieut.-Gen. Yoshimichi Suetsugu.
Base—Chinchow, Manchuria.
To-day's objective—Chaoyang, fifty miles northwest of Chinchow.
Ultimate objective—Jehol city, 130 miles southwest of Chaoyang.
Opposition—Chinese regulars, state and volunteer troops.

REPORTS ON MISSIONARIES

Toronto, Feb. 24.—No Canadian missionaries are known to be in the Jehol territory, where evacuation is asked by Japanese military authorities, according to heads of churches here to-day.

The Church of England in Canada officers stated their missionaries were further south in Honan, but said they understood missionaries from the Church in England were in Jehol.

The China Mission headquarters here on the Roman Catholic Church said they had missionaries in the field at the area between Shinghai and Hongkong, but there was none farther north in the Jehol section.

TEST FLIGHT

Winnipeg, Feb. 24 (Canadian Press).—Bernie Balchen, piloting the giant monoplane Lincolne, Ellsworth plans to use in his forthcoming flight over the South Pole, landed at Stevenson Field at 1 p.m. to-day after a short flight from Fargo, N.D. Ellsworth, who had planned to accompany his pilot on the test flight to Winnipeg, changed his plans just before the takeoff and was not a passenger.

AUTO SALES INCREASE

Montreal, Feb. 24 (Canadian Press).—Increased sale of Canadian automobiles abroad is the brightest spot noted in the February business summary issued to-day by the Bank of Montreal. Sales were maintained abroad throughout the whole of 1932, and January's figures reveal expansion of the foreign market is continuing.

TWO NEW BANKS FOR DETROIT

(Associated Press)

Detroit, Feb. 24.—Organization of two new banks to take over the liquid assets of the First National Bank and the Guardian National Bank of Commerce, the two largest in Detroit, to-day awaited the approval of the comptroller of the currency in Washington.

The plan, given tentative approval by the Treasury Department, is designed to make available at once 50 per cent of all deposits and is seen as a short cut to solution of financial problems which caused Governor William A. C. C. to issue a bank holiday proclamation February 14.

The two new banks would provide the city with banking facilities while the old banks would carry on no business other than cashing assets.

U.S. HELMETS FOR CHINESE SOLDIERS

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 24.—Two thousand metal helmets, made for United States soldiers during the World War, were shipped to-day to China, to become part of the equipment of Chinese troops on the Jehol front.

They were taken from a warehouse here, where they had been stored for years, and packed in cases addressed to "H. Y. Shanghai."

Albert S. Dreyfuss, head of the company which shipped the helmets, said the order for the Chinese army had been placed through a New York exporting concern.

FOUR HELD AFTER PLANE BASE FIRE

Moscow, Feb. 24.—A dispatch from Khabarovsk to-day said a Japanese plane named Katsawa had confessed it had been commissioned by other Japanese to destroy the Russian aviation base at Ust and other structures of importance to this country.

The Ust base, where a fleet of planes is under construction, was damaged by fire on January 19. Police suspected arson and arrested three members of the militia guard, who admitted their guilt and testified against Katsawa, who was arrested. The investigation is still in progress.

MAN ADMITS HE WROTE THREAT

New York, Feb. 24.—Frederick Manthrop, twenty-six-year-old English actor, who admitted he wrote a letter to Mrs. John Sloane, society woman, demanding $2,000 under threat of death, was indicted to-day by the federal grand jury for violation of the so-called "Lindbergh act."

The act, passed by Congress shortly after the Lindbergh abduction last year, provided a maximum penalty of twenty years' imprisonment for using the mails in attempted extortion or means of threats.

SAANICH CUTS POLICE COSTS

Magistrate, Court Clerk and Officers to Be Paid Less

Reductions in all salaries under the control of the Saanich Police Commission, from Police Magistrate Jay down to the lowest paid constable, were yesterday evening decided upon by the commissioners, as a means of saving nearly $1,000 from the cost of police administration. Police Magistrate Jay will be paid $500 instead of $625 for the year, the police court clerk will receive $500 annually instead of $625, and all officers will be reduced $7.50 monthly.

Last year Chief Rankin and the four constables each were cut $10 monthly, and the new scale will bring their monthly salaries to $17.50 below the rates in effect in February of last year.
The new schedule will become effective with the March cheques.

"We all dislike cutting salaries, but it has to be done," declared the reeve,
"and we only make small cuts now.
I am afraid we will have to reduce the police force later in the year. It may come to the state where we will have to pay salaries in municipal bonds," he added.

Commissioner Goddard moved for a $5 per month cut and was supported by Commissioner Seale. The reeve, however, was against this, and thought the reduction should be $10. Following this, the original motion was withdrawn and the cut set at $7.50 a month for each man.

On behalf of the members of the force, Chief Rankin accepted the reductions, assuring the commissioners that the officers were aware of the serious financial outlook facing Saanich, and desired to co-operate. There would be no lessening of the level attention to duty which had marked the force. This had earlier been the subject of warm commendation by all three members of the commission.

As a result of the revision the cost of policing Saanich was brought down to $12,000 for the year, compared with $12,986 last year. The revised total provides $228 for equipping the force with two new British-built motorcycles.

Considerable discussion took place in regard to transfer of the sittings of the police court to Royal Oak Municipal Hall. The rent of $200 annually paid the city for use of the city hall court and police facilities was considered reasonable, but to be avoided if possible. The cost of looking after prisoners at Royal Oak was found paltial, however, and Saanich will continue the arrangement with the city.

SHOWS WORTH OF FISH DIET

Mrs. E. Spencer Explains the Value of Constituents in Sea Foods

The benefits of sea foods in counteracting goitre and in furnishing the vitamins required by the human being were reviewed by Mrs. Evelyn Spencer in an interesting address on "Fish as a Food" given in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Mrs. Spencer is lecturing here at the invitation of the Department of Fisheries with a view to encouraging the greater use of fish as a food.

She remarked upon the comparative absence of goitre on the Pacific Coast as well as in the Maritime provinces, noting that the fish-eating sections of the nations appeared comparatively immune from that ailment.

Shellfish, claims and oysters were rich in iron and were consequently a valuable food in the diet of the anaemic.

The speaker pointed out the fact that fish flesh contained valuable iodine and other properties of great value to the human body.

Cod liver oil was especially valuable as food for the expectant or nursing mother as well as babies and growing children.

In some detail she sketched the vitamin content in fish, noting the various varieties from which this valuable diet feature was secured.

MINERS WOUNDED

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 24 (Canadian Press).—One miner was shot and more than a score were injured when striking broke out yesterday at the Peoples coal mine, where members of the United Mine Workers of America are on strike.

TELLS OF SALARY SET AT $60,000

Canadian Press
Toronto, Feb. 24.—Examined in connection with the Solloway-Mills brokerage firm, the Dominion company, Isaac W. C. Solloway admitted yesterday on cross-examination by W. J. P.
Jenner, acting for the liquidator, that $60,000 shared by Solloway and Mills owned by himself in 1929, had been sold to his company for $600,000.

A minute of the Dominion company was produced attesting Solloway's salary was to be $60,000 a year. On a question from Mr. Jenner, Mr. Solloway said that salary was paid for his services to all the Solloway-Mills companies.

Further pressed as to his ability to earn that salary, Mr. Solloway said that as the company earned several million dollars, it was probably not inadequate.

CHANGE SOUGHT BY FAIR GROUP

Agricultural Association Seeks to Extend Its Scope Beyond Present Limits

The British Columbia Agricultural Association yesterday evening introduced notice of motions intended to widen its scope beyond the bounds allowed under the Societies Act and to consider the appointment of the secretary at the annual meeting instead of having that post filled by the appointment of the executive.

Neither matter was discussed, but both will be brought before the next meeting on March 24.

Consideration was given to the proposal to change the admission price to the fair. On a vote, twenty-seven favored a reduction to twenty-five cents, while twenty-five opposed the motion.

The financial statement presented showed a small credit balance after all expenses had been paid. A vote of confidence was passed to the existing officers and members of the advisory board.

CANNOT DRIVE IF ON RELIEF

Saanich Orders Aided Families to Surrender 1933
Car License Plates

After March 1 men receiving Saanich relief will not be permitted to drive their automobiles, except where special permission has been given by the relief committee of the Saanich Council.

Yesterday evening the council was informed that several cars owned by men on relief were carrying 1933 license plates. The information was provided by many residents, among those reporting being men on relief.

The matter had also been drawn to the attention of the municipal relief officer by one of the officials of the provincial government.

Reeve Crouch stated that over 1,600 persons were being aided by Saanich, this total including 593 married residents having 1,099 dependents, seventy-seven transients with 194 dependents and 1,000 men on relief.

How long Saanich could continue the present system could not be known before the attitude of the provincial government was made known. It was fore-casted that the provincial government would not be able to continue the present system.

Councillor Hagan remarked that men who have been able to buy car license plates were either getting the money from other sources or they were starving their families. It was also suggested that the council should keep a car in service.

Councillor Hagan said he had received many complaints in regard to the matter. He had written the relief officer to board their cars in their garages, if only to avoid giving offense, as it was unfair to other ratepayers and relief workers.

The following motion was then passed unanimously: "Except in cases specially authorized by the relief committee, where no permit or any other form of his family has the use of an automobile with 1933 license plates, no relief shall be allowed after March 1 until such license plates have been turned in to the municipal relief officer."

TRADE TREATY DETAILS WATCHED

London, Feb. 24.—Premier MacDonald told the Commons yesterday working of the Imperial Conference agreements with relation to the interests of industry and commerce of Great Britain were being considered under view by the President of the Board of Trade in consultation with the Dominions Secretary.

There was no reason, so far as Mr.
MacDonald could see, for setting up special machinery for the purpose of checking the results of the agreements.

Alexander Ramsay, Conservative, suggested that since the existing government departments already were sufficiently occupied, and in view of the importance of developing empire trade, a special authority be appointed to take care of the project.

GOVERNMENT SEEKS BIDS FOR SUPPLIES

Bids for supplies required by provincial institutions are being received by V. A. Rollins, provincial purchasing agent at Parliament Buildings here until noon March 14. Information as to requirements may be obtained under view from officials in charge of the various institutions.

LEAVES FOR PRARIE POST

E. D. Lelacheur Completes
Four Years as Imperial Oil Manager Here

After four years as manager of the Imperial Oil Company here, E. D. Le-lacheur will leave on March 9 to take the post of sales manager of the company at Saskatoon, it was announced to-day.

Mr. Lelacheur was born in Prince Edward Island and a quarter century ago set his sails westward, stopping in Saskatchewan, eventually going into business for himself with the Advance Trunking Company. Seven years ago he joined the Imperial Oil Company and in 1928 came west to Vancouver. In February 1929 he was appointed Victoria manager.

Always an enthusiastic sportsman,
Mr. Lelacheur has gained popularity in several lines of recreation and athletics. On the prairies he managed a hockey club and was a great curler, touring the west to attend bonspiels.

This season he has led the Imperial Oil Tenpin Bowling squad into a contending position in the Olympic senior league and also captained the league-leading Kiwanis five.

He has been a constant week-end player at the Uplands Golf Club. He is past president of the Capital City Commercial Club.

C.C.F. DEBATE TOPIC OF M.P.'S

Three Members of Commons Oppose the Woodsworth Resolution

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—The Woodsworth resolution to establish a co-operative commonwealth in Canada was debated again in the Commons yesterday evening.

Proposals of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation were denounced by Cameron R. McIntosh, Liberal, North Battleford, Sask. The resolution, he said, was subversive of individual and political liberty "as we know it in Canada." The present economic order was not perfect, but that was no reason for jumping into socialism.
The wise method was to build soundly on experience.

Frank W. Turnbull, Conservative, Regina, said a meeting of the "new group" had been held in Saskatchewan and had decided against being named Socialists, but selected the name Co-operative Commonwealth Federation. In Alberta, selection of the name co-operative commonwealth had been made after rejection of the name Socialists. Why should this new party try to "defeat the people," he asked?

"I defy these gentlemen," Mr. Turnbull declared, "to put their whole programme before us."

Harry Butcher, Liberal, Lost Mountain, Sask., said he would admit something was wrong with the ship of state, but there was no necessity of sinking it. Repairs could be made and a new crew signed, he said. It had carried this civilization and would carry it much farther, he said.

Mr. Butcher was speaking when the 11 o'clock adjournment was reached.

"Acts Like a Flash" COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS

It all depends on you—if you want to be rid of your stubborn cold and be up and doing in a few hours, you'll ask your druggist for a bottle of Buck-ley's Mixture and take it as directed.

That tough old hang-on cough that nothing seems to help is an easy task for Buckley's after just the first sip—you'll know it's on the way out.

Buckley's "acts like a flash"—70%
of Canadians use it for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and ordinary respiratory troubles—it loosens things up—it neutralizes the acid conditions. Get a bottle—you or one of the kiddies will need it to-night—it's different—free from anything harmful.

For your health's sake demand Buck-ley's, for cheap imitations are numerous.

ALL TO HANDLE SAANICH SCRIP

The proposed Saanich issue of relief cheques, worth $2.75 each, will be requested from Saanich merchants as well as from the departmental stores of Victoria. Councillor W. R. Woods said yesterday evening. As chairman of the finance committee of the Saanich Council he had received protests against any limited circulation of the new scrip.

Reeve Crouch agreed that no such limited circulation was contemplated, the idea having apparently developed from his report that he had interviewed departmental stores and had found them glad to handle the cheques at par.

All business firms will be expected to accept the notes, the council agreed, regretting any misunderstanding had arisen among merchants.

CHALLENGE TO LAVERGNE

G. Williams of Saskatchewan Says M.P.'s Statements About Him False

Saskatoon, Feb. 24.—Direct denial of the statement that he was a "paid agent of Moscow" was made yesterday by George H. Williams, member of the executive of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, replying to the charge made by Armand, Que., Deputy Speaker of the Commons, in the House Wednesday.

"I challenge Mr. Lavergne to make the same statement outside of the Commons, where he would be subject to a charge of libel," Mr. Williams added.

Mr. Lavergne makes the statement knowing he has the protection of the House and does not dare make it outside. I am instructing my solicitors to take action against the newspaper publishing the statement on which Mr.
Lavergne's charges were made," he continued.

CAMPAIGNING
Mr. Williams, who is leaving home next week for a series of meetings in support of the C.C.F. programme in the Mackenzie constituency, added:
"I am wondering if the Conservative government is using the position of one of the more advanced radical organizations in Canada, I have never come across one."

In reply to a question he stated he never directly or indirectly was the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation in receipt of Soviet funds.

Frank Elison, secretary of the United Farmers of Canada, pointed out that when a writer to a newspaper had recently charged George Williams was "a member of a society outlawed in Canada," both newspaper and writer had been published apologies on threat of legal action.

HEALTH CENTRE AID MAY BE CUT

Provincial Board of Health to Reduce Assistance to Saanich

The Provincial Board of Health proposes to reduce its grant in aid of the Saanich Health Centre by $1,500 this year. Should the reduction be made, Saanich would have to disburse with the services of at least one nurse and might have to do without two. This announcement was made at the Saanich Council yesterday evening by Reeve Crouch.

The School Board recently cut $1,000 from its appropriation for school health supervision, he remarked. This had not been specifically taken from the salary of the medical officer, the reeve explained.

He had interviewed Dr. H. E. Young, Minister of Immigration. This had not been specifically taken from the salary of the medical officer, the reeve explained.

When notified that the government's aid was to be reduced, and on his representations the proposed reduction was being reconsidered, Reeve Crouch stated.

Throw Off That COLD!

Some men and women fight colds all winter long. Others enjoy the protection of Aspirin. A tablet in time, and the first symptoms of a cold get no further. If a cold has caught you unaware, keep on with Aspirin until the cold is gone. Aspirin can't harm you. It does not depress the heart. If your throat is sore, dissolve several tablets in water and gargle. You will get instant relief. There's danger in a cold that hangs on for days. To say nothing of the pain and discomfort Aspirin might have spared you! All druggists; with proven directions for colds, headaches, neuralgia, neuritis, rheumatism.

DOUKHOBORS MAY MIGRATE

Verigin May Ask Colonies to Follow Him From Canada to Another Country

Halifax, Feb. 24.—An indication that eventual removal of the Doukhobors from British Columbia and Saskatchewan may be undertaken in the event of deportation of Peter Verigin was seen yesterday in the presence in Halifax yesterday of John McDonough, president of a United States colonization company, which, he said, had 1,000,000 acres of available land in Mexico.

From time to time, plans for a general exodus have been reported, though no definite action has followed promulgation of any particular scheme.
The Doukhobor leader is held here under a deportation order, the validity of which is now the subject of legal proceedings.

Yesterday evening his personal secretary, E. F. Reben, expressed the belief that if Verigin should be forced to leave Canada, he would ask his followers eventually to follow him, "in a few years, probably."

The colonization agent was reticent about his proposal and declined to discuss details. He said 1,000,000 acres were available, but that 500,000 women were in the event of a decision to move.
Verigin, he said, would be welcomed by the Mexican government.

NO CHANGE
Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Status of Peter Verigin, spiritual leader of the Douk-hobors in Canada, has not changed, according to Hon. Wesley A. Gordon, Minister of Immigration.

If the court action now pending in Halifax should result in dismissal of Verigin's application for a writ of habeas corpus, his deportation would follow as soon as it could be arranged, unless some new circumstance should come to light, the minister stated yesterday evening.

The decision on Verigin's appeal to the Halifax courts will be handed down to-morrow. Should the case be

The Man Hunters

By MABEL McELLIOTT

(Copyright by NEA Service)

"At business school. He was taking the course—some whim of his father's. Yes, he's very nice."

"Very nice? Very nice?" The futile, foolish words mocked her. As if she hadn't been dreaming of Robert Dunbar's image for months. As if every lineament of his splendid young face weren't burnt on her brain. Very nice, indeed!

She forced herself to say with desperate calm, "He's to be married, I believe."

"I don't know about that," said Waring with indolent carelessness. "All the girls in that crowd are after him. I suppose he has everything—money, looks—nice disposition. I've heard he's a bit wild." His voice dropped confidentially, "Now you would be exactly the sort of girl for that young man. You have brains and you're rather easy on the eyes yourself."

She moved her shoulders impatiently. Why couldn't the man leave? Her voice sounded heavy as lead as she answered, Susan said, "Ah, but you see, he doesn't want me."

She would have given a great deal to have the words back in a panic she wondered if she had given herself away.

CHAPTER XXI

The leaves turned and it was October again. In another month Susan would be twenty. When she was busy she scarcely thought about the passage of time, but occasionally when she was tired or things had gone wrong she began to wonder whether she was drifting. It was all very well to be ambitious but where, after all, could she get with this particular job? She had no special flair for the work. She was faithful and routine but beyond that the business world, as Ray called it, disappointed her.

Rose had the right idea. Susan would think as she passed down the aisles of a big department store. Rose had chosen to enter a woman's world. When she reached this stage in her reflections Susan was sometimes conscious of a sense of panic. She must succeed at work because there was nothing else for her! She must repay Aunt Jessie for all she had done. It was only fair. It was well enough for other girls to chat idly of marriage, but that was not for her. Susan wanted the one she wanted, she would not content herself with second best.

Susan was passing the glove counter in a State Street shop one day at noon when she heard someone call her name. The girl on the stool held out a perfectly manicured hand and said, "Sorry it's late but you see the other one is busy."

Susan saw the saleswoman was fitting a faultless, fawn-colored glove. Denise Ackroyd regarded her shrewdly and as if on an impulse added, "Do have lunch with me, won't you?"

Susan was too surprised to think of an excuse. The other girl ordered half a dozen pair of gloves as casually as Susan might have bought a new dress. The saleswoman's manner was markedly deferential.

"There, that's that," said Denise. "Shopping is a horrid bore, isn't it?" She did not seem to require an answer but chattered on in that high impulsive voice. "I suppose you're in a bit of a rush. Do you mind if we stop right here? The tea room's not bad, really."

Not bad! Susan thought it the height of quiet luxury. She slipped into a chair at the candle-light table feeling uncommonly shabby beside the other girl. Denise threw a sly look at Susan and said, "You look like a million bucks."

"I look a wreck," she pouted, examining herself in the mirror. Susan called this opportunity to frankly estimate her rival. It was as her rival she always thought of Denise. The other girl's skin had a clear, garden-rose-white texture. It was almost translucent. Her fine brows were delicately arched and her whole face wore customarily an expression of careless disdain. All her belongings, the fur, the bag, her wadded little gloves, breathed a scent that was elusive and piquant. Susan thought it was mimosas but wasn't sure.

She felt tongue-tied and wondered why she had come. Why hadn't she thought of an excuse? What did this girl want of her? Determinedly she brought her attention back to what Denise was saying.

"So sorry to have broken up the party that day you and Bobby were lunching," she said. Susan pretended not to remember.

"Oh, when then, it doesn't matter," Denise said sweetly. "I thought there was a chance you might be taking him seriously and that would be bad."

"Would it? Why? Susan's voice was grave. Denise laughed a silvery, little trickle of amusement.

"Why? She asks me that!" She raised her eyes in mock amazement. "Surely you know his reputation."

Susan clapped her spoon into the clear soup and fixed her candid gaze on the other girl. "I know very little about him," she said quietly. "except that he's pleasant."

"Oh, my dear, is that all?" There was the faintest edge in Denise's tone now. "He's charming, that man. He's a lamb but you have to know him through and through as I do to—well, to appreciate him. We've practically been

Uncle Wiggily And The Carrot Dog

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Uncle Wiggily and Baby Bunty were looking at the big pile of carrots hidden beneath the snow when they heard a noise, as I told you in the story last night. The rabbit gentleman and the orphan bunny child had made a wonderful find of a lot of carrots beneath the snow out in a field, and Uncle Wiggily was going to take them to his family when the noise happened.

"What was it?" asked Bunty, getting ready to run away with her sled.

"It sounded to me like a growl," said Uncle Wiggily.

"I think so, too," spoke Bunty. "Oh, I do hope it isn't the Fox, the Wolf, or the Bob Cat."

"The Bob Cat doesn't growl, he mews," whispered Mr. Longears.

"That's so," agreed Bunty. "But the other two Bad Chaps growl."

3-24

Out came a jolly old dog.

"So they do!" admitted the rabbit gentleman. "I'll get ready for them, and he began to make some hard snowballs."

Again the growling noise sounded and Bunty whispered:

"It seems to come out of the pile of carrots."

"Surely it does," Uncle Wiggily replied. "Dear me! This is quite a surprise. I hope it turns out to be a jolly fellow."

"Do you think," spoke Bunty, "do you think, Uncle Wiggily, that one of the Bad Chaps might be hiding in your pile of carrots?"

"They aren't my carrots as much as they are yours, Bunty," said Uncle Wiggily. "You found them first. But as a matter of fact, I think these carrots belong to neither of us. I wish I knew whose they were so I could get some for the poor bunny family."

Once more the growl sounded and Bunty cried out:

"Oh! Oh, dear! Oh, dear me!"

"Come out of that pile of carrots, whoever you are!" ordered Uncle Wiggily in a brave voice. "Go now, come out! I'm ready for you!"

Mr. Longears had a hard snowball in each paw ready to throw if one of the Bad Chaps should come out of the snow-covered pile of carrots. Baby Bunty, standing near her sled, was ready to run. But there was no need. All of a sudden what seemed to be a door opened in the lower side of the snowhill of carrots and out came a jolly old dog wagging his tail as friendly as could be.

"Oh, hello!" growled the carrot dog, that being his manner of speaking, so that really didn't growl because he was cross. "Hello, Uncle Wiggily, and you, also Baby Bunty!"

"Oh, so you know our names, do you?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Yes," growled the dog, "I couldn't help hearing them as I was curled up under the pile of carrots. I growled to tell you I was coming out as soon as I could get the door open. But it was covered with snow and stuck a bit."

"Oh, so you have been under the pile of carrots ever since the snow fell and covered them, have you?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"Yes," barked the carrot dog. "I have."

"What for?" Uncle Wiggily wanted to know, while Baby Bunty gave the dog a few pats on the head which he liked very much, wagging his tail faster than before.

"I was watching the carrots," was the answer.

"Oh, then you are a watch dog," exclaimed Bunty.

"No, I haven't a watch, not even one I can wear on my tail," said the carrot animal.

"I mean," said Bunty, "you were watching the carrots so no one would take them. Oh, dear! Uncle Wiggily and I hoped we could have the carrots to share with a poor rabbit family that has none."

"Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed the jolly dog. "Take all the carrots you wish. My master told me to stay here to watch the carrots so they wouldn't be taken away. That was early in the fall when he had so many carrots he didn't know what to do with them. He put this pile in the field and told me to stay here and if any rabbits or animals like that, came along and wanted the carrots to let them have them. So take all you need."

"Oh, that's fine!" said Uncle Wiggily. "I suppose your master is a farmer?" he asked the carrot dog.

"Yes," was the answer, "and now that my watching is over and you are going to take the carrots, I can go back to the farm. Good-bye and good luck!"

And with that away ran the dog, Uncle Wiggily and Bunty found where the dog had built himself a little kennel house under the pile of carrots to live in while he watched them. In the kennel was a fire so the carrot dog was not entirely comfortable. Just before he went to bed, Mr. Longears and Bunty took the vegetables all away and shared them with the poor rabbits.

So that ends the story. But if the match doesn't build a fire in the fox, the wolf or the bottle of milk, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's long slide.

Glorifying Yourself

By ALICIA HART

Have you a size sixteen complex? Do you still wriggle into things that are really too small and not realize why you are not entirely comfortable, just because that size used to fit you?

Even women who keep themselves nice and slim usually find that they are things made slightly differently, as the years go on.

I have known women who were so slim that their arms looked as if they were about to burst through their sleeves. They were about to burst through their sleeves with a beaming face.

"Do you know," she regaled the group, "I've been so comfortable for a long time now, without realizing what was the matter. Now I've bought both my giraffe and my brasserie one size larger and don't feel surprised how relieved I feel."

Shoes are perhaps the biggest single item to consider. Are you—long enough? The width makes little difference, just so your toes don't get pinched. But shortness in length throws all those delicate bones of your feet out of place. Short stockings are almost as bad as short shoes.

Armholes are another thing to watch. Do you need just a little more room around the armholes? Well, get it in your next dress. Your circulation needs it, even if your vanity does not. And right there across your shoulders, under that place, feeling strained. Well, a half inch wider in the front won't make you look any bigger but will relax you and make you comfortable.

Foundation garments should be fitted carefully. Certainly sane, modern women know there's no use lacing yet both—worn garments too small. The result is that they "ride up" and you bulge over them. Neither is pleasant nor pleasing.

Women over thirty-five are the ones to watch these things. And they might pass it on to their husbands too. For men er more than women in continuing to get collars, shirts, underthings and hose too small, after their dimensions demand a larger size.

What a Motion! Hebe: Did you know that women were in politics thousands of years ago?

Hebe: Nor where did you get that?

Hebe: Well, it is stated that Salome's motion was received by the house with loud applause.

Her Privilege Jim: Your wife has beauty, brains and charm. What more could you ask?

Bert: I couldn't—she does all the asking around our home.

"American Intercollegiate Association of Gigolos"

Heralds New and Glorious Day of Feminine Emancipation—No Longer Will Dateless Girl Have to Take What She Can Get or Else Sit at Home

HERE'S good news for you, girls! According to a newspaper dispatch, the "American Intercollegiate Association of Gigolos" has been formed as the answer to the cry of the coeds for escorts to social events. The sponsors dedicate themselves to specializing in "uplifting" the proper man in the proper attire for any and every occasion, and say that they will organize chapters throughout the country.

Thus does modern efficiency answer the maiden's prayer for dates. No longer need a girl palpitate between hope and despair, wondering if any youth will ask her to go to the football game, or to some party to which she is invited. All that she will have to do will be just to order in something in the boy-friend line that will make the other girls' eyes bulge. No longer will the girl who lacks it have to sit at home and twiddle her thumbs or evenings, or paper the walls when she goes to a dance. She can have as many devoted swains and cut-ins as papa's purse will afford.

Moreover, this plan of renting her escorts, instead of having to take what chance and the money of Heaven sends her, will enable a girl to be choosy and indulge her taste in the sort of man she steps out with. She can look 'em over, instead of being the one who was looked over and passed up if she didn't hit the fickle masculine fancy, as has heretofore been the case.

If she has a preference for the tall, thin, dark type with smoldering, passionate eyes, she need only telephone down to the gigolo agency: "Say, send me up a sheik for to-night for the prom, and see that he looks the part." Or, if she is of the petit type herself and knows that she looks her best when she has the foot of a big, husky, hee-an beside her, she can demand a Western, and say: "I don't want another like that last one, who looked like something the cat dragged in. If you can't be more particular about neckties and the way trousers are creased and the right sort of sweaters, I will have to take my trade to another shop."

Slender or stout, athletic or pale and studious, blue eyes or brown, straight hair or curls, cavernous or poetic—just think of the ecstasy of a girl being able to choose among them and take the thing she is mad about instead of having to take the thing she can get, and thank the Lord it is no worse.

In all the injustice of civilization there is no situation more cruel than that which makes a girl dependent for her good times upon having an escort and that has left this to the caprice of boys. An imported ball frock is nothing but a rag to cover her shame if no boys ask her to dance. For her to go to a ball game with mamma or papa or a group of other girls is to proclaim to the world that she is a flat tire in the eyes of men. Treasure hunts, swimming parties, gay dinners and roadhouses, night clubs, all require that a girl shall be "accompanied by a gentleman." Even hostesses fight shy of the girl who can't scare up a man to come along with her.

So it is no wonder that girls live in an agony of apprehension over their dates. Will Tom, Dick or Harry ask them to get their hair cut or to take them to the blank hall, or cut in on their dances, or drop by for them for a spin in their car? Hence the announcement of the establishment of the Gigolo Association, where they can provide themselves with escorts, must come like tidings of great joy. It removes the ancient fear of being dateless that robs girlhood of half its happiness.

Of course, it may be said that hiring an escort is a sordid and unromantic way of getting one, but in reality, it is only doing in a frank and businesslike way the thing that mothers and their daughters have been doing for years. Perhaps always. For what is all the entertaining that parents do for their daughters except bribes to men to show them attention? Doesn't mother pay for the tickets more than half the time when Archibald escorts Grandmama to the theatre? Doesn't father furnish the car and the gasoline in which daughter and her dates ride around? And don't young men, as a rule, have to be fed and week-ended and generally have some sort of a chrome throne to be with the girl before they give her a rush? Yes, verily.

For the modern youth realizes his value in the scheme of things. He knows he is indispensable, even if only for appearance's sake and to save the girl's face and keep her from being a social flop. Therefore, he demands for his attentions all that the tariff will bear. And the girls pay it.

You can see them doing it everywhere. Pretty, dainty girls going out with boys who haven't even taken the trouble to get their hair cut or a shave or their clothes pressed. Intelligent, highly educated girls heroically smiling through the boredom of listening to the dull conversation of stupid egotists. Patient Griseldes who meekly submit to the insolence of men who take them up and drop them at their fancy. Independent girls who can earn their own support, yet who stand for boys telling them that unless they will submit to being pawed over they will not take them out.

And all for the sake of having dates. No wonder that girls will hail the formation of the American Intercollegiate Association of Gigolos, where you can hire an escort for so much per hour, as the dawning of a new and glorious day of feminine emancipation.

Making a Newspaper

PRINTING THE PAPER

If you want to see the last step in the drama of a forest turning into newspapers, watch a modern printing press turn out newspapers in a steady stream.

A second may seem a short time to you, but it is time enough for ten copies of a large newspaper to be printed, folded and pushed out of the machine.

In the forest grow trees. Along come woodsmen who cut them down. The trunks are taken to a mill, and they come out of the mill in the form of large rolls of paper.

These huge rolls are shipped to newspaper plants, where they are connected with the presses.

A button is touched and the press begins to work—slowly at first but then with gathering speed. The paper is pressed against metal forms which are inked by rollers. The rest of the process is hard to follow; but before the paper comes from the machine, it has been cut into sheets of the proper size and the sheets have been folded together according to page number.

Up in the composing room, you may have seen pages of type "made up" and ready for the press; but here in the pressroom you do not see the type. What has happened? The newspaper has been printed without a flat page of type?

To answer those questions, let us go back to the composing room and follow a page of type. When the form is ready, it is placed in a mat-making machine. A large sheet, a kind of a cardboard, is pressed down on the type. The type makes its impression on the cardboard, and we have a mat—for short, a "mat."

The type form on a newspaper press must be rounded to fit cylinders. That is why the mats are made. They can be bent without being broken. When moisture is poured on the curved mat, it will take the same form as the type, except that it will be curved and can be fitted on the cylinders of the printing press.

It may be hard to follow the story of the mat, but I assure you that without some such process a newspaper could not be printed with great enough speed to supply copies promptly to thousands of readers.

The leaflet called "Marvels of the Sky" shows sizes of the planets and their distance from the sun. It tells about Donati's comet and other wonders. If you want a copy, without charge, send a stamped, return envelope to me in care of this paper.

Horoscope

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1933

Benefic aspects are strong to-day, according to astrology. It is a time for brisk selling and for ambitious planning.

Merchants and manufacturers are to be busy in the next few weeks, it is forecast. Commerce will show most encouraging signs.

Warnings are given by the stars that American prosperity will increase through expansion of markets rather than in any scheme of limitation.

Since the stars seem to presage for the United States advance as a world power, its commerce must expand to a world power, its commerce must expand to a world power, its commerce must expand to a world power.

Gradual changes in the relation between the stars and the public is prophesied. Again stars of real genius will rise in the horoscopes and attract the stars' prophecies.

Women will seek simplicity in dress and shyness is thought in contrast to what is actually and affected. If the stars are rightly read, and 1933 will produce many improved types in girls of the period.

As the pendulum of fashion swings backward, such that is good of old modern modes will be retained and attire will become more artistic, astrologers foretell.

Persons whose horoscope it is to have the augury of a year of fairly good luck, but

NOTES OF THE LEGISLATURE

Col. Fred Lister has been named chairman of the committee which will name standing committees of the Legislature. Acting with him will be J. W. Cornett, James H. Beatty, Dr. H. C. Wipac and F. M. MacPherson.

No new committees have yet been scheduled to deal with special matters like the active unemployment committee of last session where much of the most contentious discussion took place. One or more may, however, be called for by resolution later.

Hon. N. S. Loughheed announced yesterday that 2,500 inquiries have been made to his department by intending settlers who have some capital and wish to take advantage of the government's policy of offering easier terms to those who desire to take up farming.

Fifteen or sixteen reports from different departments of the government which have been made public since the last session were formally tabled in the Legislature yesterday.

Rev. C. E. Schindler, Bishop of Columbia, read the prayers at the opening of the session yesterday.

Intimation of eight bills that will come before the Legislature was given today. All will be introduced by Attorney-General Pooley. They include bills to amend the Public Health Act, to amend the Family Maintenance, Children of Unmarried Parents, Cemetery Companies, Bills of Sale, Conditional Sales, Fire Marshal, Parents' Maintenance and Lunacy.

WAR VETERAN DIES SUDDENLY

There passed away suddenly this morning at the family residence, 1609 Redfern Street, Frank Hallas, aged fifty-two years, and a resident of this city for the last fifteen years. Born in Rutherford, Yorkshire, England, Mr. Hallas came to Victoria from Prince Albert, Sask. In 1916 Mr. Hallas went overseas with the 10th Battalion and returned in 1919 as a quarter-master sergeant.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosie Isobel Hallas, and one daughter, Mary, at the family residence; his mother, Mrs. M. Hallas, and two brothers, Harold and Walter, in Rutherford, England, and two sisters, Mrs. W. Turnbull, Conway, North Wales, and Mrs. B. Kaye, Chesterfield, Yorkshire.

The remains are resting at the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

ARCHBISHOP DIES

Christchurch, N.Z., Feb. 24 (Canadian Press)—Most Rev. John Charles Wright, seventy-two, Anglican Primate of Australia, and one of the leading figures of Australian ecclesiastical circles, died here today following an emergency operation.

NEW ESTIMATES ARE PREPARED

Second Draft Budget Ready For Council About March 6

A new draft of the civic estimates combining new figures, economy policies settled so far by the City Council, will be submitted to the aldermanic body about March 6, D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller, announced yesterday morning.

Mr. Macdonald is now working on the new estimates which will replace the tentative draft submitted last week to the council.

The initial estimates, while showing a drastic reduction from those of last year, left a big margin between the estimates and the actual tax rate. Since they were compiled, however, salary reductions and various other economies have been settled so the second draft will show a further drop in expenditures.

CHINESE FUNERAL
The remains of Mrs. Mai Sue, widow of Mr. Sue, former well-known merchant of Victoria, arrived yesterday from Vancouver, where she passed away on January 21. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock and interment will be in the Chinese cemetery.

Every Night
hundreds of young men look through the rent rooms for a more homelike, comfortable one, with a "private family," or perhaps town. They look at the rent rooms and find them all the same. But every one in a while some advertiser writes the RIGHT kind of an ad and her troubles are over. She tells that there is a garage near. The Y.M.C.A. is near, or some large plant that would be near his work. She tells the transportation facilities. So many minutes to town, etc. It's all in the ad.

NEWS IN BRIEF

A charge of vagrancy against Bernice Weston was withdrawn in the City Police Court this morning.

The Metropolitan Church choir and the Victoria Male Choir will give a concert in the Macdonald Hall, Port Street, at 8 o'clock.

Members of the Victoria Short Wave Club will hold a meeting tomorrow evening at 1224 Johnson Street, where they will be the guests of W. P. Wilson.

Roy Ledingham will be the speaker at the open forum of the Socialist Party of Canada at 564 Yates Street, on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. His subject will be "The Future Rests With the Proletariat."

The Victoria and District Cornish Association will hold its regular meeting Saturday, in the Macdonald Hall, Port Street, at 8 o'clock. Pictures will be shown by the C.N.R. including scenes of Canada and England. There will be a short musical programme.

Ward Three Liberal Association will hold a dance and rally at Liberal headquarters this evening. Groves' five-piece orchestra will provide the music and light refreshments will be served. All Liberals and others who wish to join the party are invited.

Three motorists were each fined $5 in the City Police Court today for failing to give hand signals when changing wheels of their motor vehicles. Another was fined for reversing direction of his car at the corner of Government and Fort Streets, where "U" turns are not permitted.

British Campaigners will be the guests of the Britannia Council of Canadian Legion, B.E.L., at their regular weekly smoker-concert in the clubrooms, View Street, tomorrow evening. Included in the programme will be a recitation on the "True Tale of the Derby" by W. Askin, Canadian dramatic reciter.

The Macdonalds, Capital Tent No. 2, held their regular monthly review in the lodge room yesterday evening with Sir Knight Commander Chilton presiding over one of the largest attendances for some time. Five new members were initiated: Sir Knights Lewis and Robertson and Ladies Stannard, Michie and Franklin. The Macdonalds held a social club for the evening season, for which purpose a committee was formed. After lodge was closed a very successful dance was held at which refreshments were served.

Three hundred attended the enjoyable programme put on at the City Police Court yesterday evening. The entertainment was arranged by Miss Dallen and A. H. Hundley as chairman. St. John's Young People's choir presented the comedy, "The New Housekeeper," with the following cast: Kathleen Smith, Helen Thomas, John Hooper, Stanley Cooper and Jack. The grand finale was a benefit solo. Thomas Jackson contributed a recitation and Herbert Stark gave a chronicles solo. The portrayal of a complete scene concluded the programme.

If the Saanich Welfare Association has secured a municipal subsidy the executive would find their troubles multiplied, members of the Saanich Council remarked yesterday evening when discussing a request for a monthly grant of $250. The application was laid over until estimates are under review, after councillors have considered complaints of discrimination were already being aired.

The voluntary work was praised as of great value, but many supporters would cease giving if the municipal treasury did not make a contribution of a certain type would "camp on the welfare dole" despite all that was done for them and to get rid of them, councillors remarked.

Forty Saanich Appeals Filed
Court of Revision Examines Complaints Against Increased Assessments

With forty appeals against increased assessments on residences, mostly from owners of properties in the urban wards, the Saanich court of revision of the assessment roll resumed its sessions this morning at 10 o'clock at the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak.

Ten of the appeals were supported personally by the owners.

The court deals with twelve appeals this morning and expects to complete the list this afternoon, if further reports by the building inspector are not necessary. None of the appeals concern large business premises.

All members of the council except Councillors G. S. Eden and W. R. Woods were present at the morning session.

His sitting was rendered necessary when the court cancelled the blanket reduction made in the assessment roll, as it applied to buildings.

The reduction of land and improvements to land was not disturbed.

Thomas Robertson, widely known authority on placer mining, has been obtained to give the talk at the concluding session to-night of the night classes given for prospecting students at the Parliament Buildings all this week under the Vancouver Island Prospectors' Association and the Department of Mines.

The new prospectors have been shown during the two weeks of courses how to make the best use of their time and energies in the field. Some 300 persons participated in the courses which were organized at the suggestion of George E. Winkler, president of the association.

To-night's concluding lecture by Mr. Robertson will deal with the practical side of placer mining.

HEARINGS ADJOURNED
Hearings were adjourned until February 27 by Mr. Justice Murphy in British Columbia Superior Court chambers here today of Mayor L. D. Taylor's application for an order to compel Arthur G. Smith, registrar of land titles, Vancouver, to issue a certificate showing the mayor's list, on which he qualified, clear of encumbrance.

Vancouver, Feb. 24 (Canadian Press)—Hearings were adjourned until February 27 by Mr. Justice Murphy in British Columbia Superior Court chambers here today of Mayor L. D. Taylor's application for an order to compel Arthur G. Smith, registrar of land titles, Vancouver, to issue a certificate showing the mayor's list, on which he qualified, clear of encumbrance.

HOPE TO CUT RATE
The council will search every avenue of economy to curtail civic expenditures and we earnestly hope that the mill levy may be reduced this year, despite our added burdens, even if the cut is only a small one, the mayor said.

Another item of tax relief which the city will seek by legislative action is in regard to boulevard charges on corner lots. Owners of such property now pay the full charge for the boulevard on two sides of their lots and permission will be sought by the council to levy this tax on a proportionate basis.

A satisfied tenant was an excellent advertisement, but judicious advertising in the daily papers has proved the most effective means of securing new building occupancy, he added.

He emphasized the importance of appearances, particularly in the case of the quarters being shown to prospective tenants.

Uniformed and efficient employees added to the attractiveness of the building. The quarters being shown to prospective tenants should be kept clean and neat.

In the renting of houses it was vitally important to see that the kitchen was attractive and in good order, Mr. Bennell said. In the bigger buildings mechanical perfection in the furnace and boiler room and in the plumbing was required.

Salaries should be watched closely to see employees were satisfied and worked without friction.

Touching various small features, such as ill-hung doors, faulty lights and other disagreeable items which needed attention, which could be predicted by the opinion of the tenant or prospective tenant.

RENOVATION IMPORTANT
Redecoration was a matter which ought to be taken into consideration. Owners of buildings had to realize their structures were depreciating all the time. A fund should be set up to provide for repairs and renovation to offset depreciation to a certain extent, he said.

Various methods in which tenants could be satisfied were sketched. When buildings which required renovations were fixed to the satisfaction of the persons occupying quarters, money spent on the work was well spent, he added, noting such costs could be spread over a period of years.

Dignified signs and lettering were suggested as a building owner ought to take into consideration. Referring to tenants, he spoke of the disadvantage of having one in a building who might fall foul of the law and

Increase In Arrears Shows Remedy Needed

Survey Reveals Where Moratorium Plan Would Aid Civic Taxpayers

Advance of Sixty-three Per Cent in Delinquent Properties in Two Years

Conditions showing the need for the city's tax arrears postponement plan are clearly revealed in a survey of the arrears prepared by the city treasury, Mayor Leeming said this morning in releasing the figures just completed.

Accounts outstanding at the end of December amounted to $549,000, which more than $500,000 was 1932 arrears. The figures reveal the depression burden is falling heaviest on far as the taxpayers are concerned.

Numerically, twenty-five per cent of the properties in the city did not pay their 1932 taxes currently, although the actual cash collection was only eighteen per cent short. This percentage is split into two figures, those on vacant land and taxes on improved property.

Twenty per cent of the total number of improved properties did not pay and seventy-four per cent of the vacant land was unpaid.

Comparative figures for the years 1930 and 1932 have been prepared, showing where the greatest increase in arrears is to be found. These again show that vacant land is hit the hardest. In 1930 taxes were unpaid on 850 parcels of vacant land, but in 1932 the number had increased to 1,277 for 1932, or ninety-seven per cent.

The next greatest increase was in improved properties, including largely business property. The increase in the number of bills unpaid was from ninety-five in 1930 to 185 in 1932, or ninety-five per cent.

The class between $4,000 and $5,000, which is the lowest in point of numbers, increased from forty-nine in 1930 to seventy-four, or fifty per cent.

The class showing the smallest increase in non-payment was that between $2,500 and $3,000, which was from 142 to 182, or twenty-eight per cent.

The two lowest classes of property, up to $1,500 and up to $2,000, the combined figures being 833 for 1930 and 1,181 for 1932.

Taking improved property as a whole, the number of properties on which taxes were not paid currently advanced from 1,481 in 1930 to 2,136 in 1932, or forty-four per cent.

The grand total of vacant and improved lots advanced from 2,351 to 3,803, or sixty-three per cent.

NEEDS FIRM HANDLING
These figures plainly reveal that the city must take firm steps to protect the property of its people, Mayor Leeming said. "At the same time it must protect its own finances and the position of the city as a whole."

The amendment to be placed before the Union B.C. Municipalities by the city will be permissive legislation for incorporation in the Municipal Act, so that any municipalities in the province could take advantage of it.

While affording relief to those who are financially pinched, the scheme is also a direct incentive to the payment of taxes by those who can afford it.

MUST LOOK AHEAD
"Victoria's financial position is essentially sound and we can consider ourselves fortunate when regarding at a distance the situations arising in other municipalities," the mayor said. "While our survey of the tax arrears has revealed some striking facts, we must adopt a far-sighted policy which will forestall if possible any such situation as this."

If the arrears postponement plan is enacted, the civic authorities see possibility of a collection as high as 90 per cent of the current tax levy. A strong indication of the co-operation shown by the taxpayers in tiding the city over the present period of depression is advanced in prepayment of tax bills. Up to the end of business yesterday more than $250,000, or nearly 20 per cent of the probable levy, had been collected in this manner.

HOPE TO CUT RATE
The council will search every avenue of economy to curtail civic expenditures and we earnestly hope that the mill levy may be reduced this year, despite our added burdens, even if the cut is only a small one, the mayor said.

Another item of tax relief which the city will seek by legislative action is in regard to boulevard charges on corner lots. IN LAID TO REST
The funeral of Mrs. Martha Wallace, who passed away on Tuesday at St. Joseph's Hospital, took place yesterday in the presence of many friends and relatives. Rev. G. F. Cox officiated. The hymns sung were "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Safe In The Arms of Jesus." Mrs. H. Shingles was solo. "In a Garden." The pallbearers were: D. Campbell, A. Bennie, T. Wallace, G. Barnes, G. Rasmussen and H. Barber. Interment was in Royal Oak Cemetery.

FUNERAL HELD FROM GOSPEL CHURCH
Funeral services for Mrs. Ida May Thompson were held yesterday afternoon, the cortege leaving the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home and proceeding to the Four Square Gospel Church, where services were conducted by Pastor G. P. Duffield. Many friends were present and beautiful floral tributes covered the casket.

During the service the hymns, "Blessed Assurance" and "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" were sung. Miss Joyce Scott sang as solo. "Sunrise To-morrow." The following acted as pallbearers: F. B. Dickhout, George Hudson, F. S. Dearborn, G. L. Lowe, C. Holt and A. W. de Saumarez. Interment was in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park.

bring to the building undesirable publicity. The maintenance of a high standard of a building was the essential duty of a building manager, he said.

Conservative Member Protests Recent Regulation on Salmon Pack
Difference of opinion between the Dominion Government and the British Columbia Government on salmon marketing regulations is intimated in the first resolution to find a place on the order papers of the B.C. Legislature which opened yesterday.

The motion stands in the name of Jack Loutet, Conservative, North Vancouver, and calls upon the Legislature to protest the Dominion Government order-in-council passed on February 3 calling for amendment to the Meat and Canned Foods Act, and requests the B.C. Government to refuse its consent to the amendment.

The amendment calls for a class A certificate to be given to fresh, firm-packed salmon when in a good merchantable condition and sets out that no certificate shall be issued for canned salmon that has not been landed fresh at a cannery for canning within twenty-four hours after being caught, excepting fish that has been gutted and iced immediately after being caught.

While the ostensible object of the order is to ensure the packing of sound salmon, Mr. Loutet claims in his preamble that salmon when caught in British Columbia waters and packed in ice can be landed in Boston in first class condition. Previously existing regulations provided for proper inspection of the salmon to ensure soundness and suitability for market, the member states.

Mr. Loutet also pointed out the B.C. Government's approval of any amending regulations under the Meat and Canned Foods Act of the Dominion, but the B.C. Government had not consulted the subject or officially advised of the passage of the amendment.

Birthday Greetings Are Extended To-day To—

DR. HENRY E. YOUNG
MISS OLIVE PIERCY
MRS. ANNIE BANNISTER
CLIFFORD DAW

Another milestone was passed today by Dr. Henry E. Young, secretary of the Provincial Board of Health. Dr. Young was born February 24, 1887, at English River, Quebec, and was educated at Queen's and McGill universities. Away back in 1905 he was first elected to the British Columbia Legislature and was re-elected in 1907, 1909 and 1911. He relinquished the portfolio of Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education on the dissolution of the McBride ministry in 1915. He is one of the founders of the British Columbia University.

Miss Olive Piercy, native daughter of Victoria, is receiving the congratulations of her many friends in Victoria today on her birthday. Miss Piercy is a daughter of the late John Piercy and Mrs. Piercy. She received her education in Victoria and is now registrar at the Normal School at Mount Tolmie.

Mrs. Annie Bannister, who has been proprietress of the Dominion Laundry, Oak Bay Avenue, for the last twenty years, celebrates a birthday today. Mrs. Bannister was born at Brighton, Sussex, Eng., and came to Victoria twenty-two years ago.

Clifford Dawe, of Beaver Road, Royal Oak, Saanich, is receiving the congratulations of his friends today on attaining his nineteenth birthday.

EXPECTS LESS FROM PROVINCE

Saanich Foresees Decline in Current Taxes Offset By Arrears

Abolition of Council Indemnities Suggested; Salaries to Be Cut Again

Preliminary estimates of the municipal budget of Saanich were distributed yesterday evening to the members of the council. The revenue from tax payments was shown at last year's income, $198,800, an anticipated reduction of another five per cent being expected to be offset by larger receipts from arrears.

Last year the current levy brought in $157,329 and the collection this year is estimated at $146,800. An interesting point is found in the school tax levy budget. This will result in a tax levy of $84.00 but the estimates anticipate that only $70,000 of this will be received. The balance will have to be secured by the council from other sources.

On the basis of collection struck for the school tax the council will have to levy at least $90,000 for the school tax. If the anticipated collection of $73,000 is to be realized, the deficit of $17,000 is to be realized.

LESS FROM PROVINCE
The budget tentatively provides $31,500 as the amount to be received from government grants. The estimate last year was $35,500 but the actual receipts were only $34,750. When perusing the estimates councillors agreed that they could be little more than a guide until the government tabled the budget in the Legislature.

The council was assured that the budget provided, under all headings, for a reduction of $10,000 in the current levy. This would compare with the actual results of 1932, when the receipts were $10,000 below the 1931 estimate.

Reeve Crouch commented, "The end of the year will tell the tale," when a councillor mentioned the possibility of higher taxes. A limit of twenty-eight mills has been adhered to in recent years.

WOULD SERVE UNPAID
When perusing the expenditure items of the draft budget, Councillor L. C. Hagan noted inclusion of $1,800 for indemnities to reeve and council. "I cut that right out," he proposed, adding "the city of Merritt was to have had a reeve or commissioner. When the government found the reeve of Merritt was not a service-free they decided that Merritt was no place for a commissioner requiring a high salary."

When the salaries paid the municipal staff were mentioned Councillor Hagan commented: "Do not get the idea that we can cut our salary list again, to the extent effected in regard to teachers. Our staff took a bigger cut last year."

Reeve Crouch said another reduction in salaries would have to be made and a councillor suggested a limit of eight per cent.

The estimates were then tabled for later review.

FUNERAL IN KELLOWNA
The remains of Emily Michaelburgh Hunt, of Kelowna, B.C., who passed away here suddenly on Tuesday, were forwarded by the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home yesterday evening to Kelowna, where the funeral will be held. Mrs. Hunt was born in Wales and came to Victoria four months ago.

FUNERAL HELD FROM GOSPEL CHURCH
Funeral services for Mrs. Ida May Thompson were held yesterday afternoon, the cortege leaving the S. J. Curry & Son Funeral Home and proceeding to the Four Square Gospel Church, where services were conducted by Pastor G. P. Duffield. Many friends were present and beautiful floral tributes covered the casket.

During the service the hymns, "Blessed Assurance" and "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" were sung. Miss Joyce Scott sang as solo. "Sunrise To-morrow." The following acted as pallbearers: F. B. Dickhout, George Hudson, F. S. Dearborn, G. L. Lowe, C. Holt and A. W. de Saumarez. Interment was in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park.

WINE GRADE LOW FOR 1932
Sherry Is Only Vintage Pro-nounced Satisfactory By Trade During Year

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times—London.—The year's wine reports are coming from all parts of Europe. It is a queer thing, but the only vintage that was really satisfactory in 1932 was sherry—and sherry was the only section of the European wine trade that needed a good vintage year, owing to increased demand for sherry and most of the others have more good wine on their hands than they can sell.

Corbett Catches Up With Welterweight Title After Long Chase

Will Fresno Battler Prove To Be A Real Fighting Champion?

Glenn Cunningham, Latest U.S. Track Star, Has Much Promise

YOUNG CORBETT, shifty scrapper from Fresno, California, now occupies the leading position among the world's welterweight fighters, through his ten-round decision over Jackie Fields, at San Francisco, on Wednesday afternoon. Corbett has reached the goal he has been shooting at for three years. Dodged by champion after champion he finally succeeded in knocking Fields into the ring for a title bout and whipped him from a financial standpoint the bout was a flop for Corbett as he received only $5,000 for his afternoon's work, hardly enough to pay his training expenses. Fields was higher by $35,000 the guarantee he demanded before accepting the bout.

Now that Corbett has the title secured it will be interesting to see if he lives up to his pre-fight statement that he would be a fighting champion if returned a winner over Fields. If he does Corbett will be an oddity in the fight game. A fighting champion is something unknown these days, all the boys who wear the crowns showing a liking for non-title bouts which give them a chance to capitalize on their championships, with no risk if losing championship recognition. Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver's ace welterweight, attended the bout at San Francisco, and challenged the winner from the ring. McLarnin and Corbett have never met and it is doubtful if a Californian will take on such a tough customer as McLarnin right away. He will want to make a little money on his newly-acquired title.

Glenn Cunningham, the United States' latest track star, who already this season has scored a victory over Gene Venekie, last year's star indoor mile, is expected to crack the record for the distance before the winter season ends. He is twenty-three years old and part Indian, but doesn't show him when Venekie, holder of the world record for the indoor mile in Madison Square Garden recently, agreed that he is all Indian when he runs.

Dan Ferris, secretary of the A.A.U., says that on form, Cunningham stands better than an even chance to break the 4:00-1-5 record of Jules Ladoumergue, France, in the outdoor mile, and that he should crack 3:50 for the 1,500 meters in the United States A.A.U. championships this summer.

Like Percy Williams, Don Bennett and others who fought several physical handicaps to athletic ability, Cunningham has almost overcome the effects of an accident which cost him his brother's life and almost his own.

When Glenn was eight in a schoolhouse fire at Elkhart, Kan. His training now must be carefully watched, as he does not have normal muscular protection on his leg bones.

When tough games of hockey come up for discussion, Lester Patrick automatically takes the chair. And his long and colorful career entitles him to it. He has forgotten more about the sport of puck than most people will ever know.

He first played organized hockey in 1903. To-day he can look back nineteen consecutive seasons as a player, twenty-two years as manager, eight major league clubs that he captained, eleven Stanley Cup finals and six world titles.

With all this background to choose from, Patrick selects a 1914 dual between Victoria and New Westminster as the toughest battle of his competitive career. The Pacific Coast crown and representation in the Stanley Cup series hung in the balance. Patrick was captain and owner of the Victoria team, and performed on defence. Against him were such great warriors of the past as Earl H. Johnson, rugged backstap star, and Hughie Lehman, one of the best goalies who ever stopped a puck.

"That game went thirty-seven minutes overtime," recounted Patrick, "and I think I played every second. Tired? That was no name for it. I was ready to drop in my tracks when we finally scored the winning goal."

"I've played in tough games since then where body checks were likely to hold you into the mesquite. I've been hurt badly myself and seen plenty of other players injured. But for pure energy-sapping, exhaustive combat, that Victoria-Westminster marathon gets my vote. Honestly, I could hardly move for two days after it."

Patrick's team went on to oppose Toronto for the Stanley Cup and world crown after that. But the present manager of the New York Rangers would just as soon forget it. It's a question is insistent, however, he answers somewhat brusquely: "That series? Oh, yes, we lost three straight."

Chet Miller Sets Two More Records

Daytona Beach, Fla., Feb. 24.—Two new world records for stock cars having a piston displacement of from 183 to 205 cubic inches, were established here yesterday by Chet Miller, Detroit. Driving an eight-cylinder machine, Miller set new standing start records of 67.968 miles an hour for one mile and 61.614 for one kilometer. There were no previous standing start records for these distances.

New York Americans and Montreal Canadiens Turn in Surprise Wins

New York Americans, who pack lots of what it takes, had a toe hold on third place in the National Hockey League's Canadian division to-day. No matter how fast Howie Morenz and Leo Danandurand usher Canadians to the tape, they can expect the borrowed, promoted and rejuvenated hockeyman of Joe Simpson to be on hand too.

What are called crucial proceedings for both the Canucks and Amerks came up yesterday evening, and if the Canadiens' 2 to 0 triumph over Chicago Black Hawks was not surprising enough, considering everything, the spangled entry scored the night's feature win. They humbled Montreal Maroons 2 to 1, at New York.

The surprising New York leaves Americans favorites to finish in the show position and the play-off. Rick Wanless, lanky winger who is on loan from the Canadiens, punched in both Amerk goals. His first goal in the third period tied the score, Dave Wattier being tallied in the second period, and the Winnipeg shotsmith beat Dave Kerr late in the overtime session to clinch the game.

HAVE BIG EDGE

Canadiens outplayed Black Hawks by wide margin to enable old George Hainsworth to make his comeback effort a shutout.

Actually Chuck Gardiner was the game's star with a sensational display in the Chicago cage. But Johnny Joliat sank a six-footer ten minutes later.

Lorne Chabot, Toronto, and John Ross Roach, Detroit, also picked shutouts. Chabot as the Leafs shutout Ottawa Maroons 2 to 0, and Roach as the Red Wings moved ahead of the American division with a 3 to 0 win over New York Rangers.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 24.—Detroit's Red Wings climbed into clear position for a first place in the National Hockey League's American division by downing New York Rangers, 3 to 0, in an upsurge of last period scoring flurry yesterday evening.

George Hay, veteran wingman who joined the Red Wings midway in the season, started the scoring early in the last period with his first goal of the season. He sank a double pass from Borrell and Carson while big Ching Johnson, Ranger defenceman, who drew five penalties during the game, was in the penalty box.

Herbie Lewis scored late in the period and Larry Aurie followed him as the Rangers tied desperately to score.

Bill Cook drew a major penalty for slashing Johnny Gallagher, Detroit defenceman, in the final period. In the penalty box, however, was in the penalty box.

SUMMARY

First period—No score. Penalties: Johnson, Carson.

Second period—No score. Penalties: Cook, Voss, Johnson, Bushwell, and Young.

Third period—1, Detroit, Hay (Carson-Sorrell), 5:18; 2, Detroit, Aurie (Evans), 17:00. Penalties: Johnson (3), Evans, W. Cook (major), Gallagher, Aurie and Keeling (2).

Montreal, Feb. 24.—A far different team than the outfit that took a 10 to 0 trouncing at Boston earlier in the week, Montreal Canadiens defeated the Chicago Hawks with the very brilliance of their play, here yesterday evening, to hand the Chicagoans a 2 to 0 shutout in a National Hockey League fixture.

Chuck Gardiner was the hero for the Hawks' cause, his extraordinary performance in the Chicago goal holding the Canadiens to a mere two goals, while on the play they should have had many more.

In the middle period Johnny Gagnon teamed with Joliat on a smart play that gave Gagnon a high shot into the far corner. Joliat scored in the same period, while Lolo Couture was in the penalty box. Morenz and Gagnon worked a double pass in a scramble to lay the puck at Joliat's stick six feet outside the Chicago goal.

SUMMARY

First period—No score. Penalties: O. Mearns, Carson (major), McPayden and Jenkins.

Second period—1, Canadiens, Gagnon (Joliat), 2:51; 2, Canadiens, Joliat (Gagnon), 15:35. Penalties: Lemke, Couture, S. Mantha.

Third period—No score. Penalties: Starr, Gottlieb, S. Mantha.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Toronto Maple Leafs kept their season's record with Ottawa Senators clear, here yesterday evening, when they blanked the home team, 3 to 0, in the last appearance of the Queen City squad on local ice this winter.

All the scoring came in the second period, the Leafs rifting home three goals in the space of seven minutes. Alex Levinsky made the play for the first, lally and Conacher and Jackson both had shots before the latter finally sank the rubber for a goal.

"King" Clancy notched the second goal. The final Queen City tally belonged to Bob Gracie alone. He went from end to end, stick-handled around (Turn to Page 15, Col. 2)

CHARLEY GRIMM CONFIDENT HIS CUBS WILL WIN

Members of Chicago, National League Baseball Champs, Reach California

Club Is Strengthened For Coming Campaign; N.Y. Giants Open Training

Los Angeles, Feb. 23.—To use his own words Charlie Grimm left his banjo at home but brought his lumbago to southern California yesterday.

He brought the first contingent of the Chicago Cubs, National League baseball champions along, and moved them into Avalon, Santa Catalina Island for their annual spring baseball chores.

The New York Giants came too, on the same special train and immediately set to work at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, but the New York team directly and silently slipped away from the station ahead of the Cubs, leaving the 1932 senior loop pennant winners to the glad hand artists and the photographers. They hope the situation will be the other way around in another year.

Grimm, the Cub's manager, was troubled with lumbago—but he still could smile, and did.

HOPES TO REPEAT

"We're going to be pretty good," Grimm grinned, "but so is everybody else. There has been a lot of strengthening all along the line and we've done a lot on our own. Yes, I think we'll repeat."

Bill Farry, manager of the Giants, did not arrive on the special train but came in from the south later in the day. He met his team at Wrigley Field in the afternoon along with several players who have been wintering in Southern California.

Each of the contenders, aiming at the same goal, brought good-sized advance squads. The Cubs had fifteen players and the Giants fourteen. The remainder of the two squads will enroll March 2.

M'LARNIN IS AFTER FIGHT

Seeks Title Engagement With Young Corbett, New Welterweight Champion

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 24.—Plans for a world welterweight title fight between Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver's giant killer, and Young Corbett, Fresno, Cal., the recently crowned king, were being hatched here. Wad Wadhams, matchmaker for the Olympic Auditorium in Los Angeles, made a bid for the fight, and let it be known the baby-faced Canadian-Irishman was in the hunt for the bout. Wadhams proposed July 4 as a suitable date for a meeting looked on as a "natural."

Corbett's representative here, Larry White, refused to commit immediately to the fight. He said the Fresno southpaw, who belted the crown from the brow of Jackie Fields of Los Angeles, with a degree of ease in ten rounds, was Wednesday, planned to rest for a couple of weeks. After that he would begin considering offers, White added.

McLarnin, long looked on as the greatest king of welters, because he has taken on all comers the last couple of years, and belted most of them into submission, witnessed the Fresno-Corbett fight yesterday. He said afterward he thought the Fresno twenty-seven-year-old a worthy National Boxing Association champion and immediately expressed a desire to trade punches with him.

Calder rallies to secure draw

Seattle, Feb. 24.—Joe Calder, Seattle, 124, rallied in the last three rounds to earn a draw over Roy Red Goodman, 126, also of Seattle, in one of the main events on a boxing card at the White Centre Arena here yesterday evening. Johnny Pasco, 136, Sacramento, defeated Red Hawks, 135, Seattle, in the other main event.

Jerry Wray, Tacoma middleweight, beat Jack Shy, Renton, in one of the four-round preliminaries. Bud Turcotte, Aberdeen middleweight, defeated Tony Cabellero, Seattle, in the opener.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Toronto Maple Leafs kept their season's record with Ottawa Senators clear, here yesterday evening, when they blanked the home team, 3 to 0, in the last appearance of the Queen City squad on local ice this winter.

All the scoring came in the second period, the Leafs rifting home three goals in the space of seven minutes. Alex Levinsky made the play for the first, lally and Conacher and Jackson both had shots before the latter finally sank the rubber for a goal.

Chinese Wrestler Defeats Thompson

Valejo, Calif., Feb. 24.—Wong Buck Chung, 210 pounds, China, defeated Tommy Thompson, 215, Texas, by two out of three falls in a wrestling match here yesterday evening.

Thompson won the first fall in thirteen minutes with a Japanese leg lock. His Chinese opponent took the second in seven minutes with a Chinese "stopper" hold, and the third in seven minutes with a flying tackle.

Colwood Golfer and Vancouver Player Meet For Mid-winter Open Title

Mackenzie Turns in Fine 1 Up Victory Over Walter Hall, City Champion

Rowan Mackenzie, Colwood Golf Club, and Dunc Hamilton, Shaughnessy Club, Vancouver, reached the final of the men's open championship, in the fifth annual mid-winter golf tournament at the Victoria Golf Club yesterday. Mackenzie defeated his clubmate, Walter Hall, holder of the city championship, 1 up, while Hamilton eliminated Art Beasley, Victoria Club, 6 and 5, in the other half of the semi-finals. The pair will meet in the eighteen-hole final to-morrow.

Mackenzie and Hall engaged in one of the best matches of the tournament to date. The former was 3 up at the ninth after covering the first nine holes in 35, as compared to Hall's 41. The city champion rallied to take the tenth and eleventh, but Mackenzie captured the twelfth to become 2 up again. Hall took the thirteenth when Mackenzie located two bunkers. The next five holes were all halved with Mackenzie winning the match 1 up.

BEASLEY OFF FORM

In his match with Beasley Hamilton secured a four-hole lead at the end of the first nine holes. Hamilton was playing good golf, while Beasley experienced an off day and his usual steady putter was working badly. The match ended on the thirteenth green.

Wickets of Jardine and Sutcliffe Lost as First Innings Commences

Australians Put On Score of 435

Darling and McCabe Lead Aussies' Attack With 85 and 73 Runs

Sydney, Australia, Feb. 24.—England at close of play to-day had scored 159 runs for the loss of two wickets in their bid to win the fifth and last test cricket match. The Australian eleven was all out for 435 runs in their first innings.

Nothing is at stake in the match. England captured the Ashes and the cricket championship of the world in the fourth test match. The Aussies won only one of the series.

Australian batsmen stood up to the English bowling with greater confidence to-day, and with the exception of V. V. Richardson, the veteran test player, who was bowled fifth ball, before he had scored, and M. Ironmonger, Aussie bowler, who was bowled by Larwood for one run, all gave a good account of themselves.

A brilliant innings by L. S. Darling accounted for 85 runs. Stanley McCabe with 73 and L. P. O'Reilly with 61 were also high scorers, while the veteran, W. A. Oldfield, contributed 52 before he was run out.

Harold Larwood led the English bowling attack by taking four wickets. Hedley Verity was effective, taking three wickets.

BRILLIANT THROW
Oldfield's wicket, the eighth to fall, with a score at 414, was the result of a brilliant throw-in by Paynter from mid-off, which broke the wicket.

When the English went to bat the crowd had grown to 25,000. Alexander and McCabe opened the bowling. D. B. Jardine, the English captain, batted first.

Oldfield caught Jardine out, after he had reached 15, off one of O'Reilly's deliveries. The score was 31 for one wicket. Wally Hammond joined Herbert Sutcliffe, and the two made a fine stand, to send the score to 153 before Sutcliffe was caught at square leg by Richardson off of O'Reilly, with his score at 56.

Hammond and Larwood carried on and had scored 72 and 5, respectively, when play was closed for the day, with the score at 159 for two wickets. Hammond's innings had been a delightful exhibition of all-around the wicket stroking.

New York, Feb. 24.—The accurate aim of Nick Wasnie, rangy right-winger who used to play with Canadians, gave New York Americans a 2 to 1 overtime victory over Montreal Maroons, yesterday evening, and shortened the margin between second and third place in the Canadian division of the National Hockey League to four points.

The triumph gave the Amerks ample revenge for their 5 to 1 defeat at Montreal Tuesday. They out-played their higher-ranking opponents in nearly every department and might have won more easily had it not been for the brilliant goal tending of young Davy Kerry.

Wasnie's first tally came in the third period to tie the score, after Dave Trotter had tallied for Montreal in the second. Wasnie netted the winning goal with a flashy shot just twenty-nine seconds before the end of the rugged overtime session.

DEAD MAN RISES AND WALKS HOME

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times
 London.—Life has been restored to a "dead" man by means of a wonderful new scientific device.
 It happened at Blackburn, in Lancashire. A man named John Pickup received a powerful electric shock while in a chemical factory.
 He fell to the ground senseless. A hurried call brought the ambulance to the spot at top speed. By the time it arrived the man showed no sign of life; his breathing appeared to have ceased entirely.
 On the way to the infirmary a new scientific apparatus for treating cases of asphyxia was brought into use. It is a machine which pumps oxygen and carbon dioxide into the patient's lungs and then, when his breathing has been restored, the working of the lungs automatically controls the apparatus.

 For fifteen anxious minutes the ambulance attendants applied this treatment to Mr. Pickup. There were signs of life, and soon a wonderful change came over him.
 By the time the ambulance reached the infirmary, he was able to walk. He actually walked home.

Thin Girls To Wear Lacquered Satin

By LADY MAYFAIR
 Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times
 London.—For the very thin girl a lacquered satin evening frock in black was recently shown in a Maggy Rouff model in Paris. The fullness was gathered to the front and the only trimming on the sleek and shiny gown was a single white water-lily on the corsage.
 It now looks as if the winter mode for warm woolen dresses is to be carried right through the spring and summer. Some of the new woolen fabrics are as light weight as cotton and almost as transparent. They have herring-bone or checked designs woven in self-color. Incidentally checks are going to be very important, especially for skirts worn with plain jackets.
 I wish you could see an idea for decoration which I saw the other day. It was in a blue-and-green sitting-room. In the centre, hanging down from the ceiling, was a lamp made to look like a gilt cage containing two glass parrots. One parrot was green and the other was blue—and the electric lights were inside the birds.

YOUTH LEADERS' RALLY SUNDAY

Service of Youth at Oak Bay United in Morning; Outside Speakers in Afternoon

An event of great importance to the young men and boys of the city will take place Sunday in Oak Bay United Church when a leaders' conference and service of youth will be held. The leaders' conference will be held at 2:30 p.m. when every leader of a boys' Sunday school class boys' group, Tuxis or Trail Ranger is invited to join in the conference.

The afternoon will be given over to a worship service conducted by Rev. T. H. Nuttall, M.A., B.D., of Victoria West United Church. Two discussion groups will be held, one led by Wesley F. Rennie, the city-wide boys' work secretary of the Y.M.C.A. of the city of Seattle, and the other by Rev. E. R. McLean, M.A., the boys' work secretary for British Columbia.

At 7:30 p.m. a grand rally of all the young men and boys of the city will be held when Mr. Rennie will give the address to the youth. All members of boys' classes of all the Sunday schools of the city are invited to attend.

SEVEN HAVE NO ELECTION CARES

Redistribution and Resignations Relieve Some B.C. Members of Political Duties

Seven members at least entered upon their duties in the British Columbia Legislature yesterday with the knowledge that it will be the last time they sit as representatives for the constituencies which returned them to the present House.

Four of them have announced their retirement from politics. Col. George Walker, Conservative, Vancouver, Dr. R. C. Weir, Liberal, Skeena, and J. H. Schofield, Conservative, Roseland-Trail, have made announcements they will retire from politics. All will close their respective careers at the end of the session. James H. Beatty, elected on the Conservative ticket at the 1928 election on his debut in politics has also announced he will not seek a return to the House.

Three other seats were affected under the redistribution bill brought in last session. Unless they should be nominated in some other constituency, L. A. Hanna, Liberal, Alberni, Dr. L. E. Benson, Conservative member of the Legislature for Mackenzie, and T. King, Liberal, Golden, will end their connections with the Legislature this session. Mr. King was returned on a by-election only to be at his first session that redistribution would abolish his seat.

WREATH ON VACANT DESK OF MEMBER

Touching reference to the loss the province of British Columbia has sustained in the death of Michael Mackenzie, Conservative member of the Legislature, was made as the Legislature opened yesterday. A wreath was placed on the vacant desk of the respected veteran member. The speaker from the Throne made reference to his passing. "Since last we met, this Legislature has suffered a loss in the death of Mr. Michael Mackenzie, one of the oldest and most honored members of the Legislature," he said. "His passing has been deeply felt by all those who have had the privilege of knowing him." Premier Tolmie and T. D. Pattullo, Leader of the Opposition, paid touching tributes to the memory of the late member.

LIFE INSURANCE AND ITS USES

(By JACK BARRACLOUGH, C.I.U.)

"Necessity is the mother of invention" just as much to-day as in the years when this saying was first uttered, and the necessity which prompted the birth of life insurance was the need of something to replace the earning power of an individual whose power to provide was crippled by disability or terminated by death.
 The great problem of man has always been that of transferring his many responsibilities to some other centre, when he was unable to recognize them. Very often this problem remained unsolved to the end of his days and it then became the problem of his dependents.
 In spite of the many solutions which are now offered to relieve the burden of such financial worries, we find that in countless instances, they are ignored altogether or until such time as their benefits are withdrawn because of ill health or financial incompetence of the individual.
 Let us consider the person who, through systematic savings in a bank or some other institution of that kind, attempts to accumulate a surplus fund for planned or unforeseen expenditures. Should he suffer prolonged illness, not only will his plan of savings be terminated but his funds will be used to replace the income which he has been unable to earn.
 If, however, he chooses a life insurance company to take care of these deposits and he takes advantage of the disability benefits which are included in many of the contracts, his savings plan would be continued and a monthly income equal to one per cent (1%) of the face value of the contract will be paid to him as soon as he has been disabled for a short period of time. Should he die before his plans have been completed, the beneficiary would not only receive the amount of money which he has deposited (as would be in the case if his savings were in a bank) but the amount of money which he intended to save.
 In the same way that one's saving plan can be insured for completion, so can one's earning power be guaranteed and if the individual would realize that it takes the interest from $1,000 invested at five per cent, to provide for one quart of milk per day, there would be fewer families left unprotected for and more people who could enjoy the autumn of their lives in happy independence.
 There is no problem of provision which cannot be satisfactorily solved by this institution of life insurance should the individual be in a position to comply with the liberal terms of the contract.
